STAGE IS SET FOR G. O. P. CONVENTION

Cummins and LaFollette Headquarters Are Opened In Chicago.

CANDIDATES' MANAGERS BUSY

Committees to Handle Delegates Named—No Bolt for Roosevelt Faction, Says Senator Borah. Alabama Protest.

Chicago, June 10.—The stage setting for the Republican National Convention was completed today with the opening of LaFollette and Cummins headquarters at hotels. Cummins headquarters was established in the same hotel that houses the Taft and the Roosevelt workers. The LaFollette headquarters, opened by Alfred T. Rogers, National committeeman from Wisconsin, is situated six blocks from the others.

The managers of the several headquarters, together with their advisers tonight completed plans for the reception of delegates who are expected to begin arriving tomorrow. Special committees to handle the delegates have been named and will be on duty from this time until the close of the convention.

A direct appeal will be made to each individual delegate by the campaign manager of each candidate for the nomination, despite instructions or pledges. No possible vote in the convention will be overlooked and any indication among the delegates of shifting sentiment will precipitate a lively scramble among the managers.

A number of prominent Roosevelt leaders today declared reports of a possible bolt by the Roosevelt delegates in case the President's friends succeed in nominating Mr. Taft, were without reasonable foundation.

Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, an active worker for Roosevelt in the sessions of the Republican National committee, said: "No bolt for me. I have not even considered such a possibility, and I don't expect to consider it."

The Roosevelt headquarters was particularly alive with meetings and conferences this afternoon and tonight. A number of well known Roosevelt adherents, including Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of Colorado; James R. Garfield, of Ohio; Congressman William Kent, of California, and Gifford Pinchot, of Washington, were among the scores to participate in the various councils held in the interests of the former President.

"We have got them 'skinned' despite the work of the National Committee," said Garfield, who was Secretary of the Interior under Roosevelt. "This committee cannot stop the nomination of Roosevelt. There will be an uprising against the action here.

"This nation has been aroused as it has not been in a Presidential campaign of recent memory and the verdict is on the side of the progressives. The convention proper will undo the 'raw' things this committee may put over. Col. Roosevelt's friends are confident of the outcome."

Franklin MacVeagh, Secretary of the Treasury, visited the Taft headquarters during the day and declared that President Taft would be nominated on the first ballot.

Oscar R. Hundley, of the Ninth Alabama district, of which the Taft delegates were seated by the National Committee, today sent a telegram to President Taft, protesting against the action of the committee. The telegram recited the contentions of the Roosevelt delegates from that district and said in part:

"The majority of the National Committee have voted to unseat the regularly elected delegates from the Ninth district of Alabama. Do you vouch for this unheard of act on the part of your partisans and do you desire your nomination secured by such methods?"

To Second Taft's Nomination

Washington, June 10. — Senator Bradley, of Kentucky, who seconded the nominations of General Grant in 1880 and Theodore Roosevelt in 1904, will second the nomination of President Taft at the Chicago convention. He has received from Mr. Taft an invitation to make the seconding speech and has advised the President of his acceptance. Lieutenant Governor Harding, of Ohio, will make the nominating speech.

Senator Bradley has been a delegate to six Republican National conventions. He received 105 votes for Vice President at the 1888 convention and was endorsed for President by the Kentucky State Convention in 1896.

W. AND L. REGATTA.

Albert Sidney Blues Win From Harry Lee Reds.

Lexington, Va., June 10. — Both events of the annual Washington & Lee regatta were won today by the Albert Sidney Blues, over the Harry Lee Reds. The first and second crews of the Blues won the contests from the rivals by one and two lengths, respectively, this being the first time in nine years that the Harry Lee Reds have been defeated.

The annual celebration of the literary society in Lee Memorial chapel was the feature of the commencement exercises tonight.

HARMON BOOMERS GET BUSY

The Governor's Forces Establish Headquarters at Baltimore and Plan Caucus—Daniels Inspects Arrangements.

Baltimore, June 10.—A general caucus of all delegates pledged or favorable to Judson Harmon, of Ohio, for the Presidential nomination, is being planned by Harmon leaders, who established local headquarters today and from now on will direct the work from here of coralling delegates for the Ohio Governor.

The caucus will be held some time before the Democratic National Convention and the Harmon lieutenants believe that it will aid in unifying and crystalizing sentiment for Governor Harmon. Meanwhile, the Harmon men will continue their work here and in Washington, trying to line up the 400 unpledged delegates to the Democratic convention.

The Harmon people have taken several rooms at the Hotel Emerson and next week Lieut. Gov. Hugh L. Nichols, of Ohio, will reach here to take active charge of the Harmon campaign. The Harmon leaders say they have no choice for temporary chairman of the convention and deny reports that they have joined with the Underwood forces to bring about the election of a temporary organization of their own choosing.

National Committeeman Josephus Daniels, of North Carolina, chairman of the Press committee, inspected the press arrangements today. He said that 430 active newspaper men would be accommodated on the press stand. Mr. Daniels made it clear to several callers tonight that Mr. Bryan was not a candidate for the Presidential nomination, saying "Mr. Bryan is not and will not be a candidate."

There will be no packing of the Democratic convention hall with shouters for Presidential aspirants if the joint plans agreed upon by the Baltimore committee and the National committee prove to be effective. Through the distribution of tickets to the delegations by the arrangement committee the day before the convention meets and the careful allotment of seats, it is expected that bands of shouters can be kept away.

"I have had a fixed determination for a year to prevent a packed convention," said Chairman Robert Crain of the Democratic National convention committee, today.

"The plan of ticket distribution should prevent their getting into improper hands."

The campaign headquarters of Governor Wilson will be opened by Friday. The Champ Clark campaign managers are to be here June 15th.

CHANGE IN DRUG COMPANY

Dr. McPhaul Purchases Interest In Business—Lumberton Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., June 10.—There was a change in the Pope Drug Co., today, Dr. W. A. McPhaul purchasing the interest of Mr. James Kerr. The business is now owned by Dr. McPhaul and Mr. W. H. Humphrey. Dr. McPhaul will be manager. Mr. Kerr will remain with the business for a while as pharmacist. He has several propositions under consideration, but has not yet decided which he will accept. It is hoped, however, that he will remain here as he is regarded as one of the very best druggists that has been here. Lumberton would regret exceedingly to give Mr. and Mrs. Kerr up.

The "city market" which is operated by Mr. C. S. Garrell closed its doors today for the Summer. Mr. Garrell has decided to take a vacation during the hot weather while business is dull but will open again when cool weather comes on.

Mr. George Thompson had the end of a finger cut off this afternoon while working on his automobile. While small the wound is exceedingly painful.

Mr. W. O. Thompson will leave tomorrow morning for Wrightsville to attend the Grand Lodge, K. of P. Mr. Thompson goes as representative of Lumberton Lodge No. 35.

Mrs. Richard Norment and little son left this evening for Asheboro to visit relatives.

Dr. W. A. McPhaul left for Charlotte this evening on a business trip.

EXPECT BIG VICTORY.

World's Greatest Athletes to Represent U. S. at Olympic Games.

New York, June 10.—The American Olympic selection committee of which James E. Sullivan is chairman, spent the entire day in picking the athletes who will represent the United States in the Olympic games at Stockholm.

From the thousand entries in each event, only those who had shown the best performances were selected. In addition there was a supplementary list arranged, but the men mentioned will have to pay their own expenses. Several men on the preferred ist are old timers at Olympic contests. but new wonders like Wright, of Dartmouth, in the pole vault; Horine, of San Francisco, the high jumping marvel; Kiviat, of the Irish American Academy Club, who smashed three world's records in the 1,500 meters run in the past two weeks; Kramer, the Long Island Club's world's champion distance and cross country runner, and young Drew, the negro sprinter, of Springfield. Mass., who was practically unheard of until the Eastern tryouts at Cambridge last Saturday, are included to make fresh records.

In every event championship calibre is maintained and barring accidents, the wearers of the Stars and Stripes should pile up more points than ever before. The team will sail Friday at 9 A. M. on the steamship Finland.

FAMILY OF EIGHT FOULLY MURDERED

Slaughter of Sleeping Household Baffles the Authorities.

REVENGE PROMPTED KILLING

The Bodies of Joseph Moore, Five Members of His Family and Two Guests Were Mutilated Beyond Recognition

Villisca, Iowa, June 10.—Eight bodies—all mutilated almost beyond recognition—were found murdered in the home today of Joseph Moore, a prominent business man of this place. The dead are: Joseph Moore and wife; Herman Moore, aged 11; Catherine Moore, aged 9; Boyd Moore, aged 7; Paul Moore, aged 6; Misses Lena and Ida Spillinger ,aged 15 and 9, resepctively.

The bodies of all with their heads terribly mashed with an axe were found murdered in their beds. There is no definite clue to the murderer, although the authorities are searching for a suspect. A desire for revenge is believed to have prompted the murder.

Only one of the bodies showed indications of a struggle. One of the Spillinger girls lay with one arm thrown out as though she had awakened and tried to ward off the murderer's blow.

A lighted kerosene lamp was found on the floor in the middle of the room occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

The only clue to the slayer so far discovered are bloody finger-prints in different parts of the house.

Inquiry has convinced the authorities that no other visitor was at the Moore home last night up to the time the family retired.

The home stands among a number of residences, but none of the neighbors heard an outcry last night.

The murder Sunday night of the entire family of Joseph Moore and two girl guests, eight persons in all, is tonight baffling the authorities who have been unable to secure a trace of the murderer and have little or no clue to his identity. The murderer killed every person in the house and escaped. It is apparent he had a key to a door of the home, because all doors and windows were found locked. The first intimation of the crime came when a clerk in the implement house of Mr. Moore went to Mr. Moore's home to find what delayed Moore in reaching his place of business today. Finding the house locked, the window shades all down and no one about, he notified the neighbors and with assistance forced an entrance.

The dead, with one exception, were found in the beds, apparently sleeping and until the wounds on their heads and the blood on the pillows was discovered, the searchers could not believe anything was wrong in the house. A bloody axe with hair and pieces of brain clinging to it, obviously the implement used in the wholesale murder, was found in an upstairs room.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore were in one bed, in another were two of the boys. The sister occupied a third and the youngest boy was alone in a small bed. The bedding had no where been disarranged.

The Spillinger girls who were overnight guests, occupied a room in another part of the house.

Absence of a clue to the murderer's identity and difficulty of imputing a motive for the slaughter of an entire household have left the authorities half dazed. Blood stains, including finger-prints on the front door knob and on the woodwork are the only clues the officers have to work upon.

A military company is patrolling the section of the city near the Moore home until bloodhounds have been put upon the trail.

The bodies will not be removed until a coroner's jury has examined them. News of the crime traveled fast and hundreds of country people came to the village today and tonight. The murderer apparently went about his work deliberately. All indications are that he entered the house by the front door and with a key; that he left the same way and locked the door behind him.

After pulling down all the blinds, a thing which the Moores never did, the murderer hung dress skirts which he secured from a closet over each of the doors leading to the outside and also over windows where a flash of light might have penetrated from the outside.

HALF MILLION LOST.

Florida Suffers Great Damage From Torrential Rains

Tampa, Fla., June 10.—South Florida has suffered half a million dollars loss from torrential rains within the past 10 days. Not since the establishment of the local weather bureau has such precipitation been recorded. Rainfall for the first nine days of June was 7.65 inches. The heaviest previous record was 6.22 inches in 1890.

Thousands of acres of land usually considered "high land" are under water and all of the inland lakes have risen to such a stage that crops are suffering and many bridges have been washed away.

In many sections of the State, railway traffic is threatened and trolley car service has already been impaired on the Pinellas peninsula.

WYATT MONUMENT UNVEILED

Pretty Ceremony Yesterday In Raleigh In Honor of First Hero of Confederacy—Maj. Hale the Speaker

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 10.—In delivering the address for the unveiling of the bronze satue of Henry L. Wyatt in Capitol Square here this afternoon, Major E. J. Hale, of Fayetteville, who was himself a participant in the Battle of Bethel in which young Wyatt spilled the first blood for the cause of the Confederacy, reviewed North Carolina's part in the inception of the Civil War and narrated most interestingly the story of the battle and the heroic part young Wyatt had in it through volunteering with five other soldiers to make the dangerous dash into the enemy's lines to burn a house behind which the Federal sharpshooters were sheltered.

The other four were Corporal Geo. T. Williams and Privates Thomas Fallon, Jno. T. Thorpe, R. H. Ricks and R. H. Bradley. He told how Wyatt fell from the first volley of the enemy after the party started on its daring mission. Major Hale sketched in detail the most interesting features of young Wyatt's life from his birth in Richmond, Va.

The unveiling ceremonies were especially imposing. A parade that moved up Fayetteville street to Capitol Square was under the direction of Adjutant General R. L. Leinster with Major Gordon Smith, Major Leigh Skinner, Capt. VanDalen Stronach, Capt. W. T. Whitten and Claude Denson as aides. The Confederate Veteran section was commanded by General Julian S. Carr and Adjutant H. A. London. The military companies in line were Fayetteville, Tarboro and Franklinton, headed by the Second Regiment band.

Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes was master of ceremonies. The opening feature was a touching invocation by Rev. A. D. Betts, the venerable chaplain of the Thirtieth North Carolina Confederate regiment.

Mrs. F. E. Williams, president of the North Carolina Division United Daughters of Confederacy, reviewed the efforts of the Daughters to provide a statue, and State Senator L. V. Bassett, of Rocky Mount, told of the part the General Assembly had in the work. Then Governor Kitchin accepted in fitting terms the statue which was unveiled amid the firing of a military salute, the ribbons being drawn by Master Henry Wyatt, a kinsman of the Bethel hero. Taps brought to a close the impressive ceremonies.

NEGRO K. OF P.

U. S. Supreme Court Sets Aside Decree Enjoining Incorporation.

Washington, June 10.—The Supreme Court of the United States today set aside the decree of the Supreme Court of Georgia, which enjoined negro men from incorporating a lodge in that State under the name of Knights of Pythias. Chief Justice White announced the opinion. Justice Holmes announced a dissenting opinion.

Chief Justice White, after reasoning that the Supreme Court as a Federal tribunal had jurisdiction to review the case, said that there was not a scintilla of evidence in the record to show that the public had been deceived or property rights of the white order been interfered with by the existence of the colored order for 20 years in Georgia.

Justice Lurton concurred in Justice Holmes' dissenting opinion.

TAFT FORCES WIN INDIANA CONTESTS

National Committee Adds 12 Delegates to President's List.

BORAH TAUNTS THE MAJORITY

The Senator Declares Taft Men Were Scared and Changed Their Vote on Contest in the South-Bend District.

Chicago, June 10.—Today's work of the Republican National Committee added 12 more delegates to the catalogue of the Taft strength on the temporary roll of the Republican National Convention. The much discussed Indiana contests came before the committee and were decided, all in Taft's favor.

With the 72 delegates comprised in the Southern contests decided last week in the Alabama, Arkansas, Florida and Georgia cases, today's gains make a total of 84 delegates added to the Taft forces by the work of the National Committee. And with the 201 instructed and uncontested delegates credited to him, they bring his present total on the temporary roll up to 285. A large proportion of the contested seats among the 170 cases still to be passed on by the committee, represent delegates instructed for Taft; the precise number is the subject of much dispute, nor can it be stated how many of these contests Taft will win.

The cases decided today were those of the Indiana delegation at large, four in number, headed by Col. Harry S. New, chairman of the convention committee on arrangements, and including former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks and the district delegations of two each from the First, Third and 13th districts.

The contest in the Fourth district was withdrawn and the committee confirmed the two sitting (Taft) delegates.

The real fight of the day in the committee came, not on the contest over the delegates at large, as it had been expected, the committee being unanimous in giving them to Taft, but over the seating of two Taft delegates from the 13th, or Southbend district. Attempts of the Roosevelt attorneys to introduce certain affidavits declared by them to bear the signature of a majority of the delegates to the district convention at Southbend, at which the Taft delegates were chosen, precipitated the only sensational interchange of the day and occasioned a sudden reversal of the committee's vote, which was not explained to the satisfaction of the Roosevelt men.

Senator Borah taunted the Taft men about it, telling them they cnanged heart because they were scared.

"The worst scared lot of men I ever saw," he said. "What has happened? Whom have you consulted? What has come over you? Whence came this revelation?" he demanded.

The Taft men denied that they were scared or that any special light had broken in upon them; they insisted that their first vote, against admitting the affidavits, was because of their desire not to delay the hearings by the necessity of giving the Taft side an opportunity to answer them or to create a precedent which would be embarrassing in later cases. Their reversal of the vote was coupled with a specific declaration that it was not to be regarded as a precedent. In this form the Roosevelt men all voted against it.

So the committee heard the affidavits with verbal testimony in contravention of their allegations and then voted to seat the Taft delegates.

The vote, 36 to 14, represents what has been the line-up between the factions ever since the committee came together.

This was not the first battle of the day, however. Before the Indiana cases were taken up the committee came near a turbulent scene. A motion by Senator Crane, of Massachusetts, to postpone until Wednesday the case of the Fourth district of California, in accordance with the request of former Senator Dick, the Taft contest leader, met the opposition of the Roosevelt forces. The case already had been called, and the attorneys and contestans were in their places when this question arose. Mr. Dick argued that a similar delay had been granted last week in the California case at the request of the Roosevelt people, and he thought he was entitled to the courtesy. During this debate the "fateful steam roller" figured in the discussion. Some of the Taft men resented mention of the political juggernaut which they said was a fiction, whereupon Mr. Borah later intimated that the Roosevelt people had no sensitiveness on the subject; in fact, rather liked to talk about the metaphorical machine.

In the roll call on the California postponement the line-up was 38 to 13; the personnel on each side being substantially the same as in the other divisions on factional lines.

The Supreme Court today affirmed the decision of the Virginia courts which suspended the collection of tolls on the Norfolk & Suburban Turnpike Company turnpikes in Princess Anne and Norfolk counties on the ground that they were not in good repair.

STRIKING WAITERS IN A RIOT

Police Arrest 125 Who Attempted to Break Up a Banquet to the German Officers at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

New York, June 10.—A demonstration by striking waiters of the city outside the Waldorf-Astoria hotel tonight during the dinner given by Mayor Gaynor to officers of the visiting German squadron, resulted in scenes of violence and rioting. Several skirmishes between police and the strikers took place before order was restored.

An army of policemen, including the "strong arm squad" picketed the streets in the vicinity throughout the banquet to avert further trouble on the part of the hotel waiters and their sympathizers and in two raids upon the mob the police carried away in patrol wagons 125 prisoners, many charged with disorderly conduct.

Whatever the plans of the waiters may have been to break up the banquet, they were averted by the police protection and the unusual co-operation of hotel managements throughout the city. There had been anticipation of trouble and, intending to take no chances in a civic affair of such magnitude, more than a score of hotel proprietors appeared personally at the Waldorf with delegations of trusted waiters ready to place the battalions in the field if the Waldorf-Astoria forces walked out.

The grand ball room, in which the banquet was held, was guarded at every instance by special policemen. Despite the trouble in the street, those at the dinner were not greatly disturbed and the dinner was carried out as planned.

The demonstrations outside, however, at one time assumed such proportions that Police Commissioner Waldo was compelled to leave the banquet and personally take charge of the situation.

In the mob which first gathered there were probably 300 men. The union officials had given intimation of "something doing tonight," and the police charge that the organization was directly back of the movement to break up the banquet.

Not until the banquet was over and the guests had departed was quiet fully restored.

The dinner wound up a strenuous day for the visitors. On shore the admiral and his officers and men were everywhere feted, while those on board ship were kept busy from noon until after sunset entertaining thousands of visitors who desired to see the vessels of the German Emperor's fleet.

Rear Admiral von Reuber Paschwitz, with his staff in brilliant uniform, came ashore and escorted by 50 mounted policemen paid a visit to Mayor Gaynor at the City Hall. Later the party called on Major General Tasker Bliss, commander of the Eastern division on Governor's Island, and Capt. Gleaves, acting commandant of the Brooklyn Navy Yard. The American officials returned all the calls on board the Moltke.

EDITOR THE OBSERVER

Wade H. Harris to Fill Chair Vacated By J. P. Caldwell

Charlotte, N. C., June 10.—The Charlotte News of this afternoon carried the following story which will be of interest and pleasure to the friends of Mr. Wade H. Harris all over the State, especially in eastern North Carolina:

"This afternoon's edition of the Charlotte Chronicle will not have at the top mast the name of Wade H. Harris, for today Mr. Harris ceases to be editor of the Chronicle, and tomorrow morning becomes editor-in-chief of the Charlotte Observer.

"All North Carolina will hear, and rejoice at the mutual good fortune of Mr. Harris and the Observer.

"To a few, the impending change—the promotion of Mr. Harris has been known for some days, but could not be released.

"That Mr. Harris should be editor of the Observer is in keeping with the eternal fitness of things. His first newspaper work was done on the Charlotte Observer shortly after it was founded by the late Chas. R. Jones. It was there he was first associated with the late Joseph P. Caldwell, then 'the' local reporter of the Observer, afterward editor of the Observer from January, 1892, to March, 1908. When Mr. Caldwell and Mr. D. A. Tompkins re-established the Observer, Mr. Harris became associated with Mr. Caldwell again, remaining with him throughout the latter's editorship of the paper and was held in affectionate esteem and regard by Mr. Caldwell."

DEFENSE ARGUES ALL DAY

Counsel In Hawkins Case Discuss State Witness' Veracity

Hendersonville, N. C., June 10.—Attorneys Shipman and McCall, both for the defense, occupied the whole day in the Myrtle Hawkins trial at Hendersonville today. Mr. Shipman spent his time discussing the veracity of State's witnesses and declaring that several of them had contradicted themselves on the stand. He said that Bob Waddell, star witness for the State, had sworn to one state of facts before the coroner's jury and to another when placed on the stand. Mr. McCall's argument was along the same lines. Attorney Thomas Settle, for the defense, and Solicitor A. Hall Johnson, for the State, remain to be heard.

Washington, June 10. — The Supreme Court today adjourned until October, leaving undecided the hard coal trust case, the Union Pacific merger case and the State rate cases.

INTERVENTION NOT LIKELY, SAYS KNOX

Thinks Warships Will Restrain Restless Element In Havana.

CUBAN CITIZENS REASSURED

The Secretary Lets It Be Known to American People That Intervention Is Not Contemplated—Rebels Attack Sagua

Washington, June 10.—The presence of our warships in Havana harbor this afternoon may be regarded as greatly diminishing the likelihood of intervention in Cuba, according to the construction placed upon that fact by the administration. It is felt that the mere presence of the two warships will restrain the restless and excitable element of Havana.

Secretary Knox, who all along has lost no opportunity of declaring against any purpose to intervene politically in Cuba, unless absolutely driven to do so by the failure of the Cuban government to uphold the government and protect life and property, felt called upon today to announce that assurance to the Cuban people through the speaker of the Cuban House of Representatives. And he also let it be known to the American people not only that the United States does not contemplate intervention, but that he believed that the Cuban government would be able itself to suppress the insurrection. Senor Ferrara, the chairman, is believed to have received great comfort from his talk with the Secretary of State.

The heavy torrential rains in Havana are now believed to have been an important factor in preventing the outbreak of race riots there. When the rains stop it is believed here the opposing elements will make no further effort to create race riots because of the presence of the cruiser Washington and the battleship Rhode Island in Havana harbor. The gunboat Nashville reported today that Sagua was being attacked by rebels, but the fruit company manager felt confident of his ability to defend the property unless attacked by overwhelming numbers.

The present troubles are rapidly being transferred to the northern coast of Oriente province and the Nashville has returned to Nipe Bay.

The Spanish American Iron Company reports the looting of the Ross Finca property, one mile from Santiago and the burning of the cane fields of Hatillo plantation, near San Luis. The main body of the rebels is now declared to be operating between Mayari and Sagua.

The feeling is growing stronger here that Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff, would be the man to send to Cuba to settle the present troubles. However, the United States has taken no steps toward mediating in the present crisis. Bringing a message of salutation from the Cuban Congress, Senor Orestes Ferrara, speaker of the Cuban House of Representatives, today addressed the American House of Representatives and was given an enthusiastic reception.

He declared the present Cuban insurrection was actually "more in diplomatic papers than in reality" and urged the United States to let the Cuban government work out its own salvation in putting down the uprising. He expressed his belief that this would be done, for he said, "Justice and the United States were synonymous."

Senor Ferrara, in a statement regarding conditions in Cuba, declared tonight the present movement was practically under control; that it was condemned by the majority of the negroes on the island and characterized as pure invention reports that he came to the United States seeking a loan.

He declared the revolution was being fostered by certain irresponsible interests. Asked who they were, he said: "A clique of merchants and political persons who want to exchange human blood for dollars."

Notwithstanding the objection made by Senator Bacon and others to the employment of the army and navy to restore order in Cuba without specific direction from Congress, the President is quite clear in his own mind of his perfect right to do this and it has been decided to continue the policy already initiated of using the marines to guard American properties in Cuba and also to avail of the army if that shall become necessary.

The first division of the Atlantic fleet which left Annapolis today for Cape Cod, was tonight ordered by the Navy Department to await further instructions at Hampton Roads. The Massachusetts, Utah, North Dakota, Florida and Delaware comprise the division, which may be ordered to Cuba.

Americans Are Arming.

Tampa, Fla., June 10.—Local wholesale hardware firms have been completely cleaned out of fire arms and ammunition by the demand by Americans now in Cuba. Last night's boat to Havana carried all the available modern rifles and ammunition in stock here, ordered through Havana branches of the Tampa houses.

Over 50 American residents in the island arrived last night and related conditions of such seriousness that they consider it unsafe to remain in Havana. Race rioting Saturday night, they say, was brutal to the negro pop-

New York, June 10.—Chicago defeated New York in the first game of the series in the most exciting game played in New York this season. Chicago won in the 10th when with Tinker on third, Crandall was ordered to pass Zimmerman. Zimmerman reached out of the batter's box and drove a wide pitch in the right field wing of the grand stand for a home run. Earler in the game Zimmerman hit a homer into the left field bleachers. Meyer's hitting was responsible for most of New York's runs. He made a homer, triple, double and a single in five times at bat. His triple drove in New York's tieing run in the eighth and his double in the tenth drove in a run and put men on third and second. Fletcher, however, was thrown out by Evers.

PITCHES NO-HIT GAME.

Manager Ramsey, of Anderson Team, Shuts Out Greenville.

Charlotte, N. C., June 10.—Manager Ramsay, of the Anderson team of the Carolina League, pitched the first no-hit game today against Greenville, winning 1 to 0. Pitcher Van Pelt, of the Charlotte team, allowed Winston its first hit after one was out in the eighth inning, being pitted against Ray, who defeated Charlotte in three successive games last week.

Lose Little Daughter.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Justice were deeply grieved Sunday morning to learn of the death of their little daughter, Goldie Marie Justice, aged about 19 months, which occurred about 6 A. M., at the family residence, No. 801 South Front street, following a short illness. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, from the residence, Rev. Jos. P. King, pastor of the Second Advent church, conducting the services. Interment was made in Oak Grove cemetery.

Ends Hunt for Rich Girl.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strenth Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50c at R. R. Bellamy.

CHILDREN'S DAY OBSERVED.

Exercises Held Sunday in Many Churches of the City.

Sunday was very generally observed in the churches of the city as Children's Day and some very pretty exercises marked the celebration of the occasion. At all of the churches where Children's Day was observed large congregations witnessed the exercises. Among the churches that observed the day are those given, with an outline of the services, below:

Trinity Methodist Church—A large congregation attended the Children's Day exercises at Trinity Methodist church Sunday night. The decorations about the altar were appropriate and tasteful, making it a scene of beauty. Miss Willie Thigpen presided at the piano. An excellent programme had been arranged, the various parts of which were impressively rendered by the children in a manner that reflected great credit upon Mrs. J. W. Smith and Mrs. E. V. McKenzie, who trained them. The exercises were entertaining and inspiring, making the evening enjoyable, and, it is believed, profitable to all who were present.

Brooklyn Baptist Church—A pleasing and interesting programme was rendered at Brooklyn Baptist church Sunday night, and the exercises were largely attended. The programme included music by the orchestra, readings, songs, cradle exercises, duet, blossom drill, sunbeam drill, dialogue, recitations, fan dril, etc.

The day was observed in a number of the other churches also and at all the exercises were of a most charming nature, and were witnessed by delighted congregations.

Board of Education.

The regular monthly meeting of the County Board of Education was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'colck in the office of the county superintendent at the Court House, with J. O. Carr, Esq., presiding, and Mr. J. G. L. Gieschen, a member, and Prof. Washington Catlett, the superintendent, and Mr. H. McL. Green, county treasurer, in attendance. The books of the county treasurer were audited, after which routine matters were considered. Mr. Thos. F. Bagley was elected a school committeeman at Sea Gate, in place of Mr. A. L. Vann, who resigned because of his removal from the district.

AT WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH.

Fairly Large Number of Visitors Considering the Weather.

In spite of the unfavorable weather conditions there was a large number of people at Wrightsville Beach Sunday, both from the city and from a distance. There seemed to be no falling off in the usual number of Sunday visitors for this period of the season from surrounding towns. They spent the day in the city and the resort and returned to their homes on evening trains. The drop in the temperature has affected interior points as well as the coast and as a result people in the inland towns find it quite comfortable at home now and will delay their intended visit to the seashore for a week or two yet, when the salt breezes will be more welcome. However, it is expected that the temperature will jump upwards in a few days and that by the end of the week the resort will be fairly alive with visitors from all parts of the country.

Among the arrivals at The Oceanic Sunday were Wilmer M. Cox, Washington, D. C.; John C. Mills and Geo. H. Mills, Rutherfordton; Paul L. Jones, Elkton, Va.; C. E. Brooks, Hendersonville; G. E. Gardner, Burnsville. Yesterday's arrivals included A. B. Ellington, Greenville; John J. Phoenix, Greensboro; Ira L. Jones, Brevard; S. W. Hoffmann and J. H. Hoffmann, Statesville; W. T. Holloweli, Goldsboro.

Sunday's arrivals at The Seashore included W. F. Martin, J. R. Bell and wife, G. W. Sisler, Mount Olive; Howard Caldwell, Columbia, S. C.; N. W. Outlaw and B. F. McElmore, Greenville, N. C. Col. W. B. Fort, of Pikeville, has arrived to spend some time at the Seashore Hotel. Miss Estelle Paschall, of Wilson, was a guest at The Seashore yesterday.

It is announced that Mr. Marx Nathan, the popular manager of the Academy of Music, will open a moving picture theatre a short distance from Lumina in a building that is now being erected for that purpose. It will be called the Lumina Theatre and will doubtless be well patronized. This will give two moving picture theatres on the beach. The other will be at Seashore Hotel, and will open about July 1st.

—Mr. James Sinclair, of Waycross, Ga., is a guest at The Orton.

ARRESTED AFTER 17 YEARS

Negro at Rocky Mount Wanted for Murder of Prominent Farmer of Marlboro County, S. C.—Admits His Identity.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 10.—After remaining at large for the past 17 years, Tom McKannon, a negro, 56 years of age, and the murderer of a prominent white farmer of South Carolina, was arrested Saturday night on the farm of Mr. W. C. Daughtridge, about three miles from this city, in Edgecombe county, and is now in the city lock-up awaiting the arrival of an officer from Bennettsville.

The murdered man was Mr. Bill Brickman, a prominent farmer of his section and his farm was located about five miles from Bennettsville and the murder caused much excitement in that section at the time. The negro was a wage employe on Mr. Brickman's farm and states as his reason for the murder numerous beatings inflicted upon him by Mr. Brickman and he bears a scar on his head now, which he states was inflicted with a knife in the hands of Mr. Brickman. He said the last act of oppression of Mr. Brickman was the taking of his watch and his refusal to return it and this so aroused his anger that he determined to kill him. He said he shot him with an old-fashioned muzzle loader and when asked if it was not loaded with slugs and nails as was reported, he said that he did not know, as the gun was loaded by another negro on the farm by the name of Millard Davis. When asked if the Davis negro knew that the murder was to be committed, he stated that he did. He said he shot Mr. Brickman while he was alighting from a buggy and was about ten steps distant. He left immediately and journeyed afoot through the country, first stopping in Johnston county near Four Oaks, where he worked for a few months and then came to this city. He said he worked around the city here for several years and since then has been working on farms in this section. When asked if his conscience did not worry him during the time he has been at large, he said that it did at first, but in the last few years he had not been bothered and had forgotten about it. The negro is unmarried, but said he had a number of kinsmen in South Carolina, but none of them knew where he was.

A white man by the name of Mr. Jim Quick, who was the instrumental factor in the negro's arrest and who the negro says told him he was a detective, had been employed on the farm of Mr. Daughtridge for the past several weeks hauling logs and while at this work he constantly came in contact with the negro whom he thought he remembered as the South Carolina murderer. This belief became strengthened as the days passed by and it was on last Saturday night that Mr. Quick told Mr. Daughtridge of his belief and Mr. Daughtridge, who makes his home in this city, immediately hitched up his horse and with Mr. Quick, drove out to his farm and confronted the negro with the charge. The negro denied knowing anything about it at first, but in a few minutes, he admitted that he was the man wanted. From what can be learned, Mr. Quick was a resident of the section in which the murder occurred at the time and later came to this city and secured employment with Mr. Daughtridge. The negro says that Quick told him that he was a detective now. The negro says he does not remember Quick.

He was brought to this city Saturday night and placed in the lock-up and the Bennettsville officers were wired of the capture and it is expected that a member of the force will arrive in this city today to take the prisoner back for trial. The negro says he does not fear to face trial as he does not think he did wrong and that he believes that the Lord is with him.

GLENN WILLIAMS FINED.

Former Yadkin County Distiller Before Judge Boyd in Greensboro.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greensboro, N. C., June 10.—In the United States Court here this afternoon, Judge Boyd decreed that N. Glenn Williams, who was convicted two years ago with T. C. Craft, of conspiracy to defraud the government in the purchase of stamps at the Williams postoffice in Yadkin county, should pay the costs of the case within the next few days and upon arranging this, stated he would pass sentence with a proviso that said sentence should be held in abeyance from term to term, so as to give Williams an opportunity to pay the fine, which under the statute cannot be less than $1,000. The costs amount to $800, and Williams' attorneys said he could arrange this in a day or two. Craft is to go without cost or fine.

During the proceedings District Attorney Holton made no motion in the case, no argument for the imposition of any specific punishment nor any comment on that of Williams' attorneys; neither did he offer any suggestion to the court as to what disposition should be made of the cases. Mr. Williams, with his wife, and Mr. Craft were present. When the case was called, Judge Strudwick made a motion for a new trial, for error committed by the judge on the trial bearing on the case. This was argued at some length. After an intimation from Judge Boyd that he did not feel inclined to deal harshly with the defendant and that he thought these matters should be cleaned up, and later when Judge Boyd announced his decision, the motion for a new trial was withdrawn, both of Williams' attorneys, Judges Strudwick and Bynum, expressing satisfaction at the arrangement pronounced by the court.

Man Coughs and Breaks Ribs.

After a frightful coughing spell a man of Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonsful ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure it's a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo., "for I believe I would have consumption today if I had not used this great remedy." It's guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50-cent or $1.00 size at R. R. Bellamy.

THREE HOUSES BURNED.

Fire in Colored Quarter Yesterday Afternoon Did Damage.

Starting from a defective flue and fanned on by a stiff wind that was blowing, fire broke out in a one-story frame building at 835 Flynn street yesterday afternoon, and before it could be conquered destroyed that building and two others and damaged half a dozen others in a more or less degree. It was only by the hardest work that the firemen prevented the blaze from becoming general in that section.

The alarm came in at 2:10, first from Box 18 and then from 114. The firemen responded promptly, but it was a long run and over some soft streets, and by the time the apparatus reached the scene the flames were raging. The wind would blow the sparks from one building to another and the firemen were obliged to divide their forces and combat several blazes at the same time. The blaze started in the house at 835 Flynn street, owned by Thomas Smith, colored, and occupied by Richmond Smith, colored This building was a total loss, as were also the buildings at 833 Flynn street, occupied by Julia Johnson, and at 831 Flynn street, occupied by Eliza Hopkins. These buildings also belonged to Thos. Smith, colored. All were one-story frame structures. The loss was about $1,500, probably two-thirds covered by insurance.

At 829 Flynn street, owned by V. A. Freeman and occupied by Elsie Smith the damage was about $50; at 827, owned by the W. W. Waddell estate, and occupied by Frank Kirnon, about $25 damage was done; at 825, owned by the W. W. Waddell estate, and occupied by Addie McIntyre, the damage was about $10; at 822, owned by Allen Jackson and occupied by Luther Wheeler, $5 damage was done.

The sparks also started fires on McRae street, and at 718, owned by Eliza Hankins and occupied by Bertie Herring, the damage was $10; at 716 McRae, owned by Jas. Sodgman and occupied by P. Faison, no damage resulted; at 1114, owned and occupied by Harrison Smart, about $5 damage was done.

The department was also called out earlier in the day, at 12:04 o'clock, by an alarm from Box 13, at the foot of Harnett street. Sparks from some burning trash in the yard of the Smith Pole & Tie Company had ignited a pile of excelsior and shingles. The damage here was about $15.00.

NO ACTION LAST NIGHT.

Y. M. C. A. Trustees and Directors Want Additional Information.

For the purpose of considering the revised plans for the new Y. M. C. A. building, the first set having been referred back to the architects, Shattuck & Hussey, of Chicago, from a former meeting to be altered so as to bring the cost of the structure within the amount on hand for building purposes, a meeting of the board of directors and trustees of the Y. M. C. A. was held at the association building last night. However, as there were several points in connection with the revised plans that were not entirely clear to the directors and trustees, it was decided to call on the architects for further information, and to postpone any action until that time.

The new plans embody all the arrangements and accommodations of the first set, though the frontage of the structure has been narrowed a few feet. However, by the changes that have been made none of the desirable features have been eliminated, and with the exception of the several points that they did not fully understand, the directors and trustees were very well pleased with the changes. The points in question had to do with the cost of the building and the arrangement of several features.

Secretary J. B. Huntington was instructed to communicate with Mr. Hussey, of Shattuck & Hussey, and to ascertain if it will be possible for him to come here for a meeting with the directors and trustees, so that an understanding of all the details may be arrived at. It is thought that Mr. Hussey will come, as when he was here before he told the trustees and directors to call upon him if they did not fully understand the changes that were to be made.

No further steps will be taken in the matter until he has been heard from.

NEWS OF CONVENTIONS.

Bell Telephone Co., to Give Information "Right Off the Bat."

There is considerable interest in Wilmington and vicinity in the National conventions. The Republican convention meets in Chicago June 18th, and the Democratic convention meets in Baltimore June 25th.

It is anticipated that there will be constant inquiries about the progress of each convention and the telegraph and telephone companies are preparing to handle bulletins covering every detail of each convention.

The Southern Bell Company has arranged for an elaborate bulletin service by telephone and the bulletins will be given free to those who call telephone No. 9000 and request the information.

People in points near Wimington can secure the bulletins by means of the long distance telephone and the only cost will be the regular toll charge for the message.

It is impracticable to send the bulletins to every telephone exchange but the manager states that parties in nearby cities are welcome to the bulletins if they will call on long distance and pay the small toll charge.

PREPARING FOR INSTITUTES

Educators In Session at Raleigh—North Carolina League of Building and Loan Associations—Charter Issued

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 10.—About one hundred of the most prominent educational workers in North Carolina are here this week for a four days' conference preparatory for going out into every section of the State to hold institutes for the public school teachers. The meetings are being held in Representatives' Hall, of the State House, and are being conducted by Prof. J. A. Bivins who is in charge of the Teacher Training division of the State Department of Education.

Mr. Bivins has prepared daily schedules of work for the Teachers' Institutes of 1912 that are to be followed in the main for all the institutes to be held in the State this Summer. And the conference of the institute workers here this week is to go through this programme of work and better prepare themselves for the most effective direction of the institutes they are to hold. The two-weeks' programme is issued in the form of an Educational Bulletin. Dr. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, is also attending the conference workers this week. The State law requires that all public school teachers shall attend the county teachers' institutes or take other special training endorsed as its equivalent by the State school department.

The North Carolina League of Building and Loan Associations convenes here tomorrow for an annual convention that promises to be especially interesting. E. L. Keesler, of Charlotte, is president and J. M. Hendrix, of Concord, secretary. Tomorrow night there will be a notable address by Hon. A. H. Eller on the benefits of building and loan locally and for the State at large. Wednesday afternoon there will be a big barbecue out at the State Fair grounds.

A charter is issued for The Union Mercantile Co., of Rocky Mount, capital $10,000 authorized and $1,000 subscribed by F. C. Herring and others.

The State Department of Education is notified that Belvidere public school district, Perquimans county, has voted for a special school tax for the betterment of schools, with only three votes against the measure. W. G. Gaither is the county superintendent.

When birds of a feather flock together it's a pretty safe bet they'll try to pluck each other.

IT MUST BE TRUE

Wilmingtoon Readers Must Come to That Conclusion.

It is not the telling of a single case in Wilmington, but scores of citizens testify. Endorsement by people you know bears the stamp of truth. The following is one of the public statements made in this locality about Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. J. E. Marshburn, 516 Castle St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am well pleased with Doan's Kidney Pills, for they have given satisfaction in my case. My back and kidneys were in bad shape and I had dull pains through my loins, together with headaches and kidney weakness. In the morning, when I got up, I was tired and languid and had but little strength with which to begin my day's work. After I had taken part of the contents of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Bellamy's Drug Store, I improved, and it was not long before my kidneys were restored to their proper working order." (Statement given February 24, 1908.)

A SECOND ENDORSEMENT.

On December 27, 1910, Mrs. Marshburn said: "I value Doan's Kidney Pills as highly as ever, and have no hesitation in re-endorsing them. They are certainly a good back-ache and kidney medicine."

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Tuesday, June 11, 1912.

As a National figure the Colonel will soon be set down as O.

Pitty poor Teddy! His bluff is being deliberately called at Chicago.

Probably Taft knew all along that he wouldn't have to quit laughing.

People who talk most about the square deal don't seem to deal it when they get the chance.

Why does North Carolina want to go to Baltimore with a divided delegation? Why not make it unanimous?

Very few men can have their note endorsed because of the fact that they can put up a really fine song and dance.

The National Republican Convention will assemble next Tuesday and two weeks hence the Democrats will get together in Baltimore.

The Washington Post compares Roosevelt to Caesar. No comparison at all. Caesar is as dead as Hector and the Colonel is a live Indian.

The Commerce Court has not been recalled but it certainly was called down by last week's decision of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Inasmuch as the United States postal banks do not advertise, it is feared that those who deposit money will forget that Uncle Sam is in the banking business.

If the Colonel loves to have a rough and tumble he is probably "dee-lighted" with the way they are kicking his hat around during the initial stages at Chicago.

Col. Roosevelt believes he is a man of destiny, but Taft's managers in Chicago differ with him to the extent of regarding him as simply meat for the steam roller.

Says the Washington Post: "Those Southern colored delegates who won't tell how they stand seem to be indulging in a conspiracy of silence." They may stand for the man who sees them last.

During all this excitement over Taft and Roosevelt, we cannot recall which one of the Democratic candidates it was who got his headquarters burned out at Baltimore several days ago. If he does not believe in signs he is an optimist.

The stepping stones to success are the accumulation of "rocks" which are judiciously deposited in a savings bank till a fine opportunity for success presents itself. That opportunity always comes to the man who has ready money for use at the right time.

A San Francisco man suggests a new philosophy involving this precept: "If you can't have what you like, like what you have." That means nothing more than cultivating the spirit of resignation. It must be admitted that resignation is better than despair.

The Colonel sent Boss Flinn poste haste to Chicago, but the Pennsylvania boss will find out that he is without jurisdiction as far away from home as the Windy City. The bosses in charge there are not likely to let him figure in the caste for any of his horse-play.

There are persistent rumors that Col. Bryan has made up his mind to ride exclusively on the Wilson bandwagon. He has been doing a little complimentary riding with Clark and Wilson both, but it is said he is now satisfied that Wilson is the man for the Democrats to nominate for President. A man may try to ride two horses for a while but when he wants to get there he will sooner or later change to the horse that has the gait.

WALL STREET'S ATTITUDE

The Taft-Roosevelt campaign for the Republican nomination has kept Wall Street guessing. The possibilities of Roosevelt at first seemed to put a chill over the street, and fear of him was expressed by some of the financial journals. However, no financiers of note, nor at least any clique of the Big Business element, came out openly and made a fight against him. On the contrary, some of the biggest of the trust men subscribed openely to his campaign fund, while, if the truth were known, many of them subscribed on the sly to put Roosevelt "across."

Secretly many have preferred Taft, but we have never gained the consent of our mind that the interests considered that they have anything to fear of Roosevelt as President. They may have their choice between Taft and Roosevelt, but if either be nominated, Big Business, as usual, can be depended upon to furnish votes and money to defeat the best Democrat in the United Staaes of America. Of course, no legitimate interest in this country has anything to fear from Wilson, Clark, Underwood or Harmon, but the Big Business portion of this country prefers a Republican victory because it feels that it is then in the hands of its friends, even though they may pretend now and then to "bust" trusts.

Those Wall Street people are very much like Republican officeholders. They want to stand in with the winner, and the one which makes most progress is the one to which the interests begin to lean. When there was no apparent possibility of Roosevelt, Wall Street was ready to call him a demagogue, but as he made gains the financiers began to look upon him as their hope. For instance, the Wall Street Journal last week contained an editorial under the caption of "Wall Street Swinging Towards Roosevelt." The Journal went on to say that one of the strongest groups of financiers in New York had turned to Roosevelt. Supposedly referring to one of the Morgan banks as formerly opposed to Roosevelt but now strongly in his favor, the Journal says:

"The management of this same bank has now declared for Roosevelt, predicting his nomination and election. The explanation of the transition in the attitude of the bank is this: They have decided to support Roosevelt because he is the only man in the fight who can give the country four years of tremendous prosperity. This prosperity is going to give the railroads much increase in rates. There is no margin for railroad work today except at impossible margins. That is because of the increase in wages, and taxes, and with the increase in rate under government regulation the investor will also be protected. For that reason the investor has turned almost entirely to the industrial issue. This is momentous. It leaves out the other issues of the campaign and centres upon that industrial feature, hoping that Roosevelt will be able to bring about better conditions."

Now that the tide seems to be turning in favor of Taft, we will be pretty apt to see the street renewing its hope of the nomination and election of the President. In fact, the hope of the financiers seems to be occillating between Roosevelt and Taft. Since things at Chicago begin to look a little gloomy for Teddy, the Wall Street favor seems again to be flowing towards Taft. Perhaps the financial barometer is best reflected just at this time by the New York Financial and Commercial Chronicle. That paper says in an editorial on "The Financial Outlook:"

"A gleam of hope has this week appeared on the political horizon. It almost seems as if the tide which for so many weeks has been so strongly setting in the Roosevelt direction, had at last turned and were now running in favor of Mr. Taft, leaving the latter after all a possible chance of getting the nomination for the Presidency. At the primary elections in South Dakota, Mr. Roosevelt swept the State, just as he did in New Jersey, a short time previously, the newspaper dispatches giving him a plurality of over 15,000. But that was not unexpected, and possesses no special significance, as many of these Far Western communities are so steeped in unthinking radicalism that the candidate who does the loudest ranting and shouting, Roosevelt fashion, is sure to get the bulk of the votes. On the other hand, in Ohio, the President's own State, where a convention was held this week to name the six delegates at large to the National Republican Convention, and where the outcome seemed to be in doubt, with the chances apparently favoring Roosevelt, the Taft adherents were found to be in control, giving the President these delegates at large. Of the district delegates from Ohio, it will be recalled, Mr. Taft succeeded in getting only 8, while Mr. Roosevelt obtained 34; that he should now get the six delegates at large was a wholly unexpected favorable development. The course of events is also making it clear that the contests which the Roosevelt adherents have engineered all over the country against the Taft delegates to the National Convention are not going to be so fruitful in triumphs to the Rooseveltites as the latter had hoped. With the Taft chances thus sensibly improved a much more cheerful tone has pervaded business and financial circles, infusing new confidence into things."

"The financial outlook" seems to have everything to do with the politics of Wall Street. It does not seem to be a matter of patriotism or sentiment but one altogether anecung the pocket. How much do men so cold-blooded as that care about the sacred institutions of this country or the principles of this government? Third termism and Mexicanism cut no ice where money is concerned.

RUNNING A BLUFF.

The result in the hearing of contests before the National Republican committee at Chicago so far seems to show the absurdity of the claims of Col. Roosevelt and his friends touching a lot of delegates whose elections were really incontestible. The contests filed for several States were based upon such flimsy pretexts that the National Committee, Taft and Roosevelt men alike, unanimously threw out the contests. They really were not entitled to serious consideration. The quick collapse of these contests is regarded as an "exposure" by the New York Tribune, the leading Republican paper of the United tSates. Referring to the action of the committee on Friday and Saturday, The Tribune says editorially:

"The action of the National committee on the contests from the Southern States so far brought to its attention emphasizes the effrontery with which most of the cases fathered by Mr. Ormsby McHarg were fabricated. The committee's decision was unanimous in the great majority of these contests, the flippant character of the claims made under Mr. McHarg's direction being so transparent that not a single committeeman would go on record as taking them seriously. It was the purpose of those who concocted these cases to create an impression of uncertainty in the public mind by challenging credentials which were really unassailable, and, unfortunately, conditions in certain Southern States made that venture practicable. On impartial examination, however, these near-contests pitifully collapsed. They were meant to last only until the committee met. Their preparation was a piece of political sharp practice which has become too common in Republican campaigns in recent years. Mr. McHarg knew from his experience in 1908 how flimsy were the similar Southern contests constructed by the agents of the so-called "allies" against whom he was then pitted. He went into the manufacture of credentias this year with his eyes open and with full knowledge that the National Committee could not sustain him if it lived up to the rules and precedents of four years ago. He is now being overwhelmed by the judgment even of committeemen friendly to him as a mere trouble maker and dealer in fictitious titles. The system under which such a traffic is permissible is pernicious and ought to be amended. But Mr. McHarg cannot escape condemnation personally as a fomenter of factional irregularities which he knew to be without excuse."

The Tribune seems to put the blame upon McHarg for sharp practice in working up contests, but is it not evidence of conspiracy on the part of all engaged in the Roosevelt campaign? Some of these contests amount to the most arrant humbuggery and the clear motive was a cheap lot of bluff.

Even Rooseveit himself confessed that he was not surprised at the decision of the committee and had to acknowledge that he was satisfied except as to the decision in one Congressional district in Alabama. Why, then, did he want to take up the time of the committee in hearing contests for which there was not the slightest foundation? It really is an exposure of intended trickery, if it could have been worked successfully, and it is a sad reflection upon the self-appointed champion of a square deal.

The urging of mere pretexts for contests is not the only disreputable thing about it. Not the least disreputable scheme of the Roosevelt crowd was to have "afterthought" conventions in Georgia to send up delegates committed to Roosevelt. These conventions were held all over the State just as if the regular Georgia conventions had not been held and sent up Taft delegates. However, the sending of emissaries and "strange gentlemen" to the South to dicker with Taft delegates was a piece of dirty work for which no square dealer ought to stand.

If the Colonel is not responsible for some of the methods pursued in his behalf, he ought to repudiate McHarg and those responsible for making overtures for the seducetion of Taft supporters among supposed purchasable Southern Republicans. To the credit of Southern Republicans who were committed to President Taft they have stood to their colors, just as have North Carolina Republicans courageously backed Roosevelt for a third term. North Carolina Republicans have shown the courage of their convictions, even though they have committed themselves to the Mexicanization of the United States. However, this campaign has shown that third termism is no bugaboo to the entire Republican party.

MILLION IN GOATS

The fact that the shoe and leather goods manufacturers of the United States are badly in need of goat skins has emphasized the possibility of the goat-raising industry in this country. The manufacturing end of it seems to outweigh the food proposition there is in it, but, believe us, the meat part of it ought to be the biggest thing about the goat industry. However, The Star has always been in favor of the goat for all there is in him—meat, hides, milk, cheese, suet and hoofs. The goat is an all-round good proposition but we are mighty late finding it out.

The Department of Commerce and Labor seems to be getting ahead of the Agricultural Department concerning the importance of promoting the goat industry, but it seems that it is the people who are creating interest in the movement. Hundreds of inquiries regarding the possibilities of goat raising are now reaching the Department of Commerce and Labor. This has caused the Bureau of Statistics of that department to issue a statement showing that $250,000,000 has been sent out of this country in the last decade to purchase goat and kid skins. It is said the commercial value of the 500,000,000 goats which these skins represent, had they been produced in the United States, would have approximated $1,000,000,000.

It is said the class of goats supplying the skins utilized in this country could be raised on the arid and semi-arid and semi-mountainous lands in the United States, now practically unutilized. The goat practically takes care of himself, but the better he is cared for the better is his meat and his skin. Those who have an idea that goat meat is to be despised do not know what a great delicacy is. About three-fourths of the so-called mutton sold in this country is nothing but goat, and judges of it know that kid is superior to mutton.

North Carolina ought to raise millions of goats. The Department of Commerce and Labor shows us that there are millions in it. Even during the past fiscal year, goat skins to the value of $24,000,000 have been brought here from foreign countries. The animals from which these skins came represent 45,000,000 goats.

Strange to say, the census of 1910 showed that we had only 3,000,000 goats in the United States, and even then there had been an increase of 50 per cent in goat raising during the previous decade. Most of those goats were raised in the southwestern States, whereas, more goats than that ought to be raised right here in eastern North Carolina.

It affords The Star pleasure to move over a bit to make plenty of room for all newcomers on the Wilson bandwagon. It is specially agreeable to welcome the Charlotte Observer to one of the cushioned seats away up front. Sooner or later the right sort of newspaper can be depended upon to get on the right side.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Major E. J. Hale, of Fayetteville, who is a delegate at large from North Carolina, is one of the staunchest Democrats in that State, and an ardent Wilson man.—Columbia State.

One result of Peary's polar dash was that it wrecked Hampton's Magazine. Hampton paid Peary $43,000 for the story of his expedition. He also gave the literary agent who secured the contract $10,000 and paid a woman $5,000 fo editing the copy. As the story fell flat, so did Hampton's.—New York World.

The men in charge of Kitchin's campaign at the State convention may have been on the job, but the returns indicate they were badly mistaken in their view of the case. Seems to us good politics would have been not to have opposed that resolution endorsing the North Carolina delegation in Congress. Such resolutions are usual.—Greensboro Record.

The cottonseed oil men in convention at St. Louis were interested the other day in the announcement that a "butter" from the oil could be manufactured to be retailed at eighteen cents a pound. That is about one-half the price of the creamery product. The claim is made that the cotton oil "butter" is pure and wholesome, wherefore there should be no objection to its use. But the same has been said of oleomargarine, which has been fought tooth and nail by the butter people for years. The cotton oil people have been able to show that they have got something better than lard and they may be able to show that they have got something as good as butter; but they will have to fight. There is a butter trust.—Savannah News.

The coal barons have never been asked a more pertinent question than Congress is framing up to transfix their attention. Why should the public be made to pay three times as much as the mine owners for the recent strike in the coal regions? There is no escaping the facts in the matter. When the miners were granted a 5 per cent increase, the price of anthracite was advanced 15 per cent to the ultimate consumer, a transaction which makes the strike a 10 per cent investment or asset for the owners. Thus the public is mulcted without rhyme or reason, a thing that has happened not only once, but on the occasion of previous strikes in the coal industry. Presumably, that species of toll is the penalty the public pays for sympathizing with the men who go on strike.—Washington Post.

A man seems to be able to do a better business with cold nerve than with irreproachable character.

Try Skin Absorption Instead of Cosmetics

(From The Woman Militant.)

The constant use of rouge and powder invites a coarsened, roughened condition of the skin, eruptions, enlarged pores and wrinkles. If you've learned this from experience, suppose you quit cosmetics and try what I recommend.

Ask your druggist for an ounce of ordinary mercolized wax and begin using this tonight. Apply like cold cream, washing it off in the morning. Keep this up for a week or two. The wax will literally absorb the coarse, colorless or blemished top skin, but so gradually as not to discommode you at all. Just as gradually the clear, velvety, naturally-tinted underskin comes to the surface. And mercolized wax becomes your everlasting friend.

For those wrinkles and large pores, make a face bath by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half-pint of witch hazel. This has remarkable astringent and tonic properties, and beneficial results come quickly.

..Theatrical..

Another big and bright beginning was made by the handsome new Bijou yesterday of what promises to be another big—for attendance—and brilliant for shows—week at this popular and entrancing amusement palace.

Everything was lovely, immensely so, at the new Bijou yesterday and the large crowds were appreciative of the solid comfort found at the ney Bijou and the swell show presented in such artistic manner. But as great as was yesterday's offering an even greater one is to be made today. The group of films to be offered today has never been surpassed in merit or variety, especially the latter, and truly "variety is the spice of life." A big educational film was offered yesterday, but one of just as much importance and interest will be presented today. This latter will be entitled, "A Page In Canadian History" and it not only gives some profitable sights of Canadian territory, but shows many prominent figures of that country, including the Duke of Connaught, Governor General of Canaca, his distinguished aides, and the Duchess of Connaught.

Another star for today and one that will be hailed with delight, is the Vitagraph's latest, "Leap Year Proposals." Not only is this film in true keeping with the times, but the star of the story is the famed moving picture comedian, fat John Bunny. This inimitable actor is to the moving picture stage what Nat Goodwin is to the dramatic stage.

Another big fun picture for today is "The Rubes Easter at Atlantic City," and the very title indicates the style of comedy contained therein. The laughs come fast.

Yet another comedy film on today is "Revenge." Its a corker as a ribtickler and should not be missed.

At The Grand Theatre

Two great feature films are promised patrons at The Grand Theatre today, one a Selig and the other a Lubin. The first is "The Vagabonds," the heart story of a wanderer and his tramp dog, adapted from Trowbridge's famous poem of the same title and arranged by Joseph Sullivan and William V. Mongq. A wandering violinist enters a barroom followed by his canine companion, Roger. He entertains the company with Roger's tricks and tells his story. The story tells of a "dear girl's love," and of how the wine went wrong and finally of the blasted home and broken heart that followed his taking to drink. He related how years afterwards he had recognized her and had kissed the coin that she had dropped to him. He pictures the after scenes of his life with Roger as his vagabond companion. The films are pronounced the best work of the producer.

"The Salt Mine" is the Lubin and Neil Brown, an employe of a large Eastern syndicate who is sent West to investigate some mining properties is the hero of the story. Then there is interwoven a beautiful little love story that holds the interest of the spectator from start to finish.

The Grand wants to make its house the most pleasant in the city and enthusiastic patrons tell the management there is nothing left to be desired in this respect. Cool and pleasant, perfectly ventilated and with music by a splendid orchestra The Grand is the premier popular-priced theatre anywhere.

Time to Put a Stop to Fakirs Soliciting Money for Alleged Missions.

Editor of the Morning Star:—Every once in a while, at least every three months, there is a real invasion of some Chaldeans, caiming to have some rights upon the pocketbooks of the peope. They belong to each and all religious denominations, according to circumstances.

I have had the pleasure to meet, some months ago, one of them, who came to ask me for an Official Certificate, in order that he might pay his respects to the Greeks of this city and elsewhere.

This I refused to do, for his papers of identification were not such as to justify my trouble.

He was pretending to collect money for some Greek schools in his country, where I KNOW THAT WE HAVE NONE. From other Greeks he was asking money for the schools in Macedonia. Or course, from Americans he was asking money for different other missions.

This extortion of funds, has lately become a real science, and I think it is time to have it stopped.

Very truly yours,
D. VAFIADI.

S.S.S. PURIFIES BAD BLOOD

Bad blood is responsible for most of our ailments, and when from any cause it becomes infected with impurities, humors or poisons, trouble in some form is sure to follow. Muddy, sallow complexions, eruptions, pimples, etc., show that the blood is infected with unhealthy humors which have changed it from a pure, fresh stream to a sour, acrid fluid, which forces out its impurities through the pores and glands of the skin. A very common evidence of bad blood is sores and ulcers, which break out on the flesh, often from a very insignificant bruise, or even scratch or abrasion. If the blood was healthy the place would heal at once; but being infected with impurities which are discharged into the wound, irritation and inflammation are set up, the fibres and tissues are broken, and the sore continues until the blood is purified of the cause. S. S. S. is Nature's blood-purifier and tonic, made entirely from roots, herbs and barks. It goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impurity, humor or poison, restores lost vitality, and steadily tones up the entire system. S. S. S. neutralizes any excess of acid in the blood, making it pure, fresh and healthy, and permanently cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Boils, and all other skin eruption or disease. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

HEAVY DOCKET YESTERDAY

James Chapman Fined $200 and Costs —Eli Faulk to Roads for 18 Months—Other Cases Before The Recorder

The docket in the Recorder's court yesterday morning was a heavy one, even for a Monday session, and several important cases were tried. Recorder Furlong presided. James Chapman, a white man, charged with violating the prohibition law, was found guilty and fined $200 and costs, from which sentence he took an appeal to Superior Court. A bond of $200 was required.

The warrant against Chapmen charged that he sold to Exum Emmonds, for 25 cents, a half pint of whiskey. Emmonds and another negro named Wilson both testified that they had purchased whiskey from Chapman, and Plainclothes Officers Frank George and B. W. Jacobs testified that they watched the negroes go into Chapman's place. They said that the negroes had no whiskey when they went into the place and that they did have whiskey wher they came out. The officers further testified that when they went in to arrest Chapman they found him behind the bar and that while they were there a man came in and asked Chapman for a drink from a bottle of whiskey which he had purchased the day before and had left in the place.

The evidence seemed strong eough against the defendant and the court accordingly imposed the fine of $200 and costs, whereupon Chapman gave notice of an appeal.

Eli Faulk, colored, was found guilty in each of five cases charging him with the larceny of a bicycle, and in three of the cases sentences of four months each on the county roads were imposed. In the other two cases sentences of three months each were pronounced, making a total sentence of 18 months. The wheels stolen by the negro belonged to Jesse Chadwick, J. C. Williamson, Walter Hines, William Hodges and Samuel Jones.

Luther Dowdy, colored, was found guilty of an assault upon a female, Nettie White, and was fined $25 and costs. The case came up from Justice Bornemann's court. I. D. Justice, a white man, was fined $20 and costs for disorderly conduct. B. R. Henderson, white, charged with disorderly conduct, was called and failed. His bond of $15 was ordered forfeited and a capias was issued for him. Joe Hansen, white, was fined $10 and costs for being drunk and disorderly.

Chas. Burnett, colored, was charged with an assault on a female, and judgment was suspended on payment of the costs. P. O. Forbes, white, was found guilty of violating the automobile law in blocking the streets, and judgment was suspended on payment of the costs. On account of the tender ages of the defendants a nol pros with leave was taken in a case charging John and Thomas Holden ,two colored lads, with assault and battery and disorderly conduct. Rosa Townsend, colored, charged with running a disorderly house, was found not guilty. Four drunks paid fines and costs. Roy Harriss, alias Roy Street, a white youth, charged with forgery, waived examination and was sent over to the Superior Court under bond of $100, which he furnished.

It is charged that Harriss forged the name of the J. Hicks Bunting Drug Company to an order upon Mr. John H. Hardin for 1,000 cigarettes. A negro boy appeared at Mr. Hardin's store Saturday evening with an order for 1,000 cigarettes. The order was signed "J. H. B. D. Co., per S.," which, it was stated, is the way the company usually signs its orders. However, as no special brand of cigarettes was specified the negro was asked as to what kind were wanted. He replied that he did not know, stating that the paper had been given to him by a white boy who was outside the store and who had told him he would give him 25 cents if he would get the cigarettes. The boy, who proved to be Harriss, was called in and appeared rather confused. He stated that he would call The Hicks Bunting Company and find out what kind of cigarettes were wanted. He is said to have taken down the receiver and held the hook down for a few minutes, then to have suddenly run from the store. Inquiry at the Bunting drug store revealed the fact that no order for cigarettes had been sent. It was stated that Harriss had formerly worked at the store and might have had an opportunity to learn how the orders were signed. A warrant was accordingly taken out for Harriss and he was arrested Sunday night.

MAYOR SMITH RETURNS

City's Chief Executive Back After a Week's Vacation

"Fresh from the country," and feeling better than he felt for many months because of his vacation, Mayor Joseph D. Smith returned to the city last night and will assume charge of his office again this morning. He came in from his plantation in Harnett county, where he stopped over night on his way home from a visit to Charlotte, High Point, Greensboro and Spray, having a host of friends in each of these places. He left last Wednesday afternoon. Mayor Smith said last night that no trip he has taken in recent years has been so much enjoyed and that he found it a real pleasure to renew old friendships in the Piedmont section, where he lived for a number of years. Asked about the political situation, Mayor Smith said that while he did not talk politics much that in every place visited he found a strong senitment for Senator Simmons. He also met a great many people who favor Governor Kitchin for the Senate, but he thought the Simmons men in the majority.

GRAND LODGE OF PYTHIANS

42nd Annual Meeting Begins at Oceanic Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, This Evening—Grand Lodge Officers Arrive.

Coming from every section of the State and representative of the citizenship of the Commonwealth, Pythians are gathering at the Oceanic Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, for the 42nd annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, K. of P., domain of North Carolina, which convenes this evening and continues in session for three days. Although the season of cool weather that has prevailed here and throughout the State for the past several days will doubtless serve to keep a number from attending that otherwise would have been present, it is confidently expected that the attendance will be the largest in the history of the order. Many of the Pythians are accompanied by members of their families.

Grand Chancellor C. C. McLean, of Greensboro, arrived last evening by way of Goldsboro and went through to Wrightsville Beach on a suburban car. He and other Grand Lodge officers and delegates are comfortably quartered at the Oceanic Hotel, where their every comfort and convenience is being looked after by Manager Jesse N. Couch and his corps of capable assistants. The hotel management will leave nothing undone that would tend to make the stay of the visitors a pleasant one. Mr. W. T. Hollowell, of Goldsboro, Grand Keeper of Records and Seal, arrived yesterday morning. Arriving yesterday also were Mr. John C. Mills, of Rutherfordton, Grand Master of Exchequer, and Mr. H. T. Powell, of Henderson, Grand Master at Arms. Besides these there were a number of representatives from the various subordinate lodges throughout the State. It was estimated that 35 or 40 had arrived up to 10 o'clock last night. The fact that so many have arrived a day before the Grand Lodge convenes is taken to mean that the attendance will be unusually large this year.

Capt. Thos. D. Meares, Supreme Master of Exchequer, who is to represent the Supreme Chancellor, and Mr. J. D. Nutt, Deputy State Chancellor Commander, went to the beach late yesterday afternoon to greet the visitors who have already arrived and to complete details for the gathering.

The first part of tonight's session will be open to the public. The meeting will be called to order at 8:15 o'clock by Grand Chancellor McLean, who will present Joseph W. Little, Esq., of the local bar and a prominent Pythian, who will deliver the address of welcome. The response will be made by Hon. A. A. Whitener, of Hickory. Following the address of welcome and response the Grand Lodge will go into secret session. A feature of the first session will be the conferring of Grand Lodge Rank. All the Past Chancellors in Wilmington, numbering about 40, are entitled to receive this rank.

Arriving on a special car or cars attached to the regular Seaboard Air Line train, today at noon, the Charlotte delegation will go through to Wrightsville Beach without change to the suburban cars. The Charlotte delegation includes the D. O. K. K. and one car will probably be required to bring their paraphernalia. The D. O. K. K. will meet Wednesday night, followed by a banquet, and all candidates who expect to be initiated at that time are asked to file their names with Mr. J. D. Nutt as early as possible. This is the branch of Pythianism that corresponds to the Shriners in Masonry.

Practically all trains to the city today will have on board Pythians for the annual meeting. The visitors will be met at the union station by a committee of local Pythians and escorted to Wrightsville Beach.

WILMINGTON SCHOONER LOST.

Frederick Roessner Abandoned Off Hatteras—Rescue of Crew.

Yesterday's Norfolk Virginian-Pilot has the following with reference to the loss of the schooner Frederick Roessner, which cleared from this port June 3rd with cargo of lumber consisting of 326,620 feet, and consigned by Robert R. Sizer & Co.:

"Seven of the crew of the three-masted schooner Frederick Roessner, after clinging to the one remaining mast of their waterlogged and partially dismantled vessel for 36 hours, were rescued off Hatteras yesterday afternoon by the United Fruit steamer Carrilo.

"Bound for New Bedford with a cargo of lumber from a South Atlantic port, the Frederick Roessner, Capt. Chase, was caught in the gale of Friday night. Before all hands could be summoned on deck to shorten sail the blow carried away two of the masts, snapping them off close to the deck. The mass of wreckage toppled overboard, putting the lumber-laden vessel at the mercy of the towering waves which soon began to break over the helpless schooner.

"The men were forced to take to the one remaining mast as the deck-load of lumber began to go overboard and schooner to leak through the seams from the pounding of the waves. Without food and soaked to the skin they watched the schooner sink lower and lower in the water all day Saturday while with bloodshot eyes they scanned the horizon for the sight of a passing vessel. The storm which had wrecked their vessel passed, but the deck of the schooner was awash, cutting off their food and water supply. All of Saturday night and Sunday morning they remained in the rigging, chilled to the bone by the brisk northeast wind.

"Yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the United Fruit steamer Carrillo, bound to New York from a West Indian port, showed above the skyline. At first the wrecked men thought the steamer would pass them, but finally the distress signal flying from the masthead was seen and the prow of the steamer turned in their direction. At 2:30 yesterday afternoon the seven men, numbed, exhausted and almost ready to drop from their precarious perches, were taken off the floundering schooner. The rescue took place in longitude 35:48, longitude 74:05."

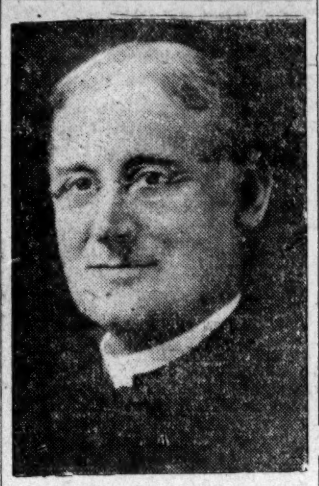
ANNUAL CONVENTION HERE

Meeting of North Carolina Christian Endeavor Society to Be Held at St. Andrew's Memorial Hall This Week

Beginning Friday evening at 8 o'clock and continuing through Sunday, the annual meeting of the North Carolina Christian Endeavor Society will be held at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church this week, and it is expected that delegates from all over the State will be in attendance.

While the details of the programme have not yet been completed, it will be one of vital interest and much importance and will include the round table discussions of live issues in the Christian Endeavor Societies, and also addresses on subjects of importance by prominent ministers and laymen. Other features of the convention will be a trip to Wrightsville Beach, a trip to Old St. Phillip's church, Brunswick county, receptions, and other social events.



REV. FRANK J. MALLETT, PH. D.

Salisbury Divine Who Will be a Speaker at Forthcoming C. E. Convention.

The first event on the programme will be the trip to Wrightsville Beach Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the delegates will be the guests of the Tidewater Power Company. The afternoon will be spent at the resort, and the party will return to the city in time to hold the first session in the Memorial Hall at 8 o'clock.

Saturday afternoon at 2:45 the delegates to the convention will be the guests of Capt. John W. Harper, owner and master of the steamer Wilmington, on a trip to Old St. Phillip's church, in Brunswick county. The afternoon session of the convention will be held on the steamer on the way down the river, and upon the arrival at the landing the party will proceed to the ruins of historic old church, where several hours will be spent. The return will be made on the Wilmington, reaching the city at 5 o'clock. Another session of the convention will be held in the Memorial Hall Saturday evening.

Sunday morning the visiting ministers will occupy the pulpits of the churches of the city, and Sunday night the closing session of the convention will be held in Memorial Hall.

Among the prominent speakers who will address the convention will be ex-President Harper, of Elon College; Rev. Earle J. Harold, pastor of Friends' church, Greensboro; Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Raleigh, and Rev. Frank J. Mallett, Ph. D., rector of St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal church, Salisbury. Saturday night Dr. Mallett will address the convention on "The Value of the Commonplace."

Delegates to the convention will be met at the depot by members of Company of Covenantors and shown to the homes assigned to them during their stay in the city. Every Christian Endeavor society in the State, whether affiliated with the union or not, is entitled to send delegates and in addition pastors and other workers among young people are also given privileges of the convention. The meeting this year is expected to be one of the most successful in the history of the organization. All of the local Christian Endeavor societies are assisting in entertaining the visiting delegates and all members are expected to attend the session of the convention.

WESTERN UNION MEN

District and Richmond Managers Here On Short Visit

The Star had the pleasure of a call yesterday evening from Mr. W. G. Sale, formerly manager of the Western Union here, but now manager for the same company in Richmond, Va., and Mr. E. M. Canada, who has recently been appointed district manager of the Western Union for the eastern half of North Carolina with headquarters in Raleigh. Mr. Sale who is well acquainted with all this territory, was down to renew many acquaintances and friendships in this section and to acquaint the district manager with the territory. Both are cordially welcomed by friends and patrons of the Western Union, who are noting with interest the increasing efficiency of the service. Mr. Canada succeeds in this district, Mr. E. T. Moore, who has been assigned to the western half of the State with headquarters in Charlotte.

JUNCTION RESTAURANT

Mr. Hutaff Buys Interest of Mr. Herbst—Improvements

Elsewhere in today's paper will be found the announcement of the dissolution of the copartnership heretofore existing between Messrs. Geo. H. Hutaff and Emil A. Herbst, in the conduct of the Junction restaurant, Mr. Hutaff purchasing the interest of the last named in the business, which is one of the most desirable investments of its kind in the city. Mr. Hutaff stated last night that it was his policy to "do" rather than to promise, but that the public might expect general improvements in the cafe under the new management to be announced a little later. Mr. Herbst has made no announcement of his plans for the future.

WILL MEET AT THE BEACH

Annual Meeting of North Carolina Pine Association Will Be Held At Oceanic Hotel Saturday—Large Attendance

The June meeting of the North Carolina Pine Association, with a membership covering North and South Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia, will be held at the Oceanic Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, Saturday of this week. Manufacturers of lumber, not members of the association, are cordially invited to join their fellow "sawdusters" at the annual meeting. Wrightsville Beach is an ideal place for gatherings of the kind and those who attend will doubtless enjoy themselves to the fullest extent.

The Star is advised that the prices of lumber are better now than they have been for some time, with an increased and ever-expanding demand for practically all the more desirable grades of lumber. With reference to the meeting the Southern Lumber Journal, of this city, in its last issue had the following:,

"One of the special features of the approaching convention of the North Carolina Pine Association at Wrightsville Beach on June 15th, will be stereopticon views of the Panama canal and the scenes incident to its construction, the progress of the work, the characteristics and customs of the Panama people, the great locks and dams and approaches to the big ditch, etc., by Mr. Owen M. Bruner, of Philadelphia, Pa., who has recently made an extensive tour of the Canal Zone, where he spent several days making such pictures as will be of special interest to the lumber people and outsiders as well. In this connection we would state that Mr. Bruner has given one exhibition of these pictures in Philadelphia which elicited the highest praise and those who would like to know more about the great Panama canal and what it is capable of developing in this country should be present at the time and place above mentioned and see this wonderful moving picture show. It will be given complimentary to the visiting lumbermen and should prove a very interesting feature of the meeting.

"Wrightsville Beach is one of the most charming Summer resorts on the Atlantic seaboard and the Oceanic hotel, headquarters for the meeting, is second to none in its equipment and facilities for the entertainment of the guests. Manager Couch proposes to put his best foot foremost in the entertainment of the lumber contingent on this occasion and hopes to have present the 'sawdusters' five hundred strong. Market conditions, outlook for business, stocks and orders on hand, inquiry, etc., besides various other topics and matters of information which will be handled by the association at this time, such as should vitally interest every lumber manufacturer in Virginia, North and South Carolina. The association extends a most cordial invitation to manufacturers of lumber in these States, not members of the association, to join with the organization at Wrightsville Beach on the 15th and participate in the deliberations of the meeting and the festivities of the occasion."

DON'T BE THIN

No Need of Being Scrawny, Weak and Emaciated

In these days of physical culture and health foods, one would hardly expect to see any thin, weak, emaciated people, but in spite of all this, nearly every person you meet is thin and scrawny.

Good healthy flesh can only be gained by the use of the proper food with thorough assimilation of the fat-giving elements. Nine people out of ten in order to weigh as much as they ought and be perfectly healthy, should use Samose, the great flesh-forming food. Weigh yourself before commencing to use these little tablets.

Samose has valuable flesh-forming and tissue-building properties, and when it is assimilated with the food, it causes the flesh-making elements to be retained and the weight is naturally increased.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., the popular druggists, have sold in the last few weeks, a great many packages of Samose, every one with their personal guarantee to refund the money if it did not give satisfaction and has had but one person ask for the money.

WHITE MAN ARRESTED.

Charged With Enticing Laborers Away From Employers.

F. Rich, a white man from South Carolina, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriffs Kelly and Davis as he was attempting to board the 3:10 train for the South, on a warrant issued by Justice Harriss charging him with enticing laborers from their employers. He was taken to Wallace last evening on the 7 o'clock train by Deputy Sheriff John Lamb, from Duplin county, and will stand trial before a magistrate there.

Sheriff Cowan was notified yesterday from Wallace to arrest Rich, as a warrant had been issued there charging him with enticing a number of laborers away from the plant of the Causey Lumber Company. Mr. P. P. Causey, a member of the firm, also made an affidavit before Justice Harriss and the latter immediately issued the warrant. The officers found their man at the station, and the deputy from Duplin arrived on the 6 o'clock train to take Rich back with him.

Saturday afternoon's Atlanta Georgian: "The call to seashore and mountain is insistent these warm days, and many are responding or planning to do so in the near future. The seashore resorts which are not over a day and night's journey are the favorites with Atlanta people at this time of the year, when brief visits, interspersed with occasional trips home, then off to another place, is the order of their going. Dr. and Mrs. Philip Hinman plan to leave soon for Wrightsville Beach, where they have visited for the past six years. With Dr. and Mrs. Hinman will go Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Broyles and Mr. and Mrs. Colquitt Carter, who have visited Wrightsville together for about six years also. A party of young people will accompany them, among these to be Miss Louise Broyles, Miss Coates Benedict, of Athens, and Miss Emily Carter, of Dalton. Others who contemplate a visit to Wrightsville are Mr. and Mrs. John Evins and family, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Jarnagin and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Forrester and family, and Mrs. Edward Van Winkle."

CHILDREN'S DAY EXERCISES AT DOCK STREET CHURCH.

Impressive and very beautiful Children's Day exercises were held Sunday evening at Dock Street Christian church, beginning at 8 o'clock. The attendance was large and all were delighted with the programme which was carried out perfectly. The exercises opened with an overture by the orchestra and the singing of "Little Sunbeams" by the school, followed by scripture reading from the 41st Psalm. After prayer, the welcome address was delivered by Miss Florence DeHart after which the school, led by the choir, and accompanied by the orchestra very effectively rendered "Out of Darkness Into Light." Miss Margaret Pate next entertained with a reading and Miss Grace Bowen sang "The Children's Hosanna," the school joining in the chorus. The children's class gave a pretty little resitation, song and star drill, "Silver Stars Are Twinkling." Miss Onida May Pate favored the audience with a recitation after which Mrs. Cheatham and Miss Ruth Bowen gave a duet, "Dark Are the Shadows." Following a recitation by Miss Grace Greer, there was an inspiring address by the pastor, Rev. C. H. Bowen, after which an offering was taken for the children for foreign missions.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED YESTERDAY

At their home at the Bonitz Hotel, No. 129 Market street, yesterday afternoon and last evening, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. W. Bonitz celebrated their golden or 50th wedding anniversary. They gave an elaborate and highly enjoyable reception in honor of the happy event.

The reception began at 4 o'clock and lasted until 8 o'clock, during which hours more than 200 friends and acquaintances called to felicitate Mr. Bonitz and his golden bride. The aged couple, both vigorous for their age and youthful in spirit, happily received their numerous callers and the good cheer prevailing was so infectious that from beginning to end the event proved a most joyous and delightful one for host and hostess and guests. Mr. and Mrs. Bonitz were bouyant of spirit and greeted their numerous callers with happy smile and words of great cordiality. An heirloom of priceless value in the family was worn by Mrs. Bonitz. It was a golden wreath presented by King Ernest Augustus, of Hanover, Germany, on the 11th of June, 1845, to Mr. Bonitz's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich and Elizabeth Bonitz, who then celebrated their golden wedding. The valuable present from the king was in accordance with a custom to make a royal present to every couple in his kingdom who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage. This same wreath, which has been in the family continuously since the King of Hanover presented it, was worn at the golden wedding of another grandson of the original receivers of the present, celebrated in Washington a few years ago.

The parlor, dining room and punch room were beautifully decorated with Southern smilax, potted plants and cut flowers, while a blaze of electric lights gave a brilliant touch to the surroundings. From early afternoon till late in the evening light refreshments were served and punch was disposed by the members of the happy family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonitz bore up exceedingly well under the fatique of receiving so many callers, and their happiness was heightened by the many tokens of remembrance received from relatives and friends in this and other cities. These included telegrams and letters besides a magnificent array of golden presents. Many of the presents were both beautiful and costly, but doubtless none was more highly appreciated by them than a box of gold coins presented by their grandchildren as a golden tour gift. However, Mr. and Mrs. Bonitz will not take the tour, since they delight in Wilmington and propose to enjoy their golden honeymoon in the midst of a loving family and loyal friends.

The out-of-town guests who came to be with Mr. and Mrs. Bonitz on this notable occasion were the following relatives of Mr. Bonitz: Mrs. Emilia Helbig, sister, Lynchburg; Mrs. Lissitte Bonitz, sister-in-law, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Katie Fisher, cousin, Baltimore; Mrs. Dorah Bissinger, niece, Washington, D. C.; Miss Julia Wacksmuth, niece, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wacksmuth, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Wm. McCray, niece, and Mr. McCray, Rocky Mount; Mrs. Annie Sherman, niece, and little son, Master John Sherman, Roanoke, Ca.; John Helbig, Esq., of Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonitz were married on June 10th, 1862, and to the union were born nine children, six of whom are now living. The children and grandchildren are: Mrs. W. D. Blalock, having one daughter; Miss Florence L. Bonitz; Mrs. Etta B. Andrews, having two children; Mrs. Bertram Quelch, having two children; Mr. Henry E. Bonitz, having three children; Fred W. Bonitz, Esq. Mr. Bonitz has only one sister living, Mrs. Emily Helbig, of Lynchburg, Va.

—Yesterday's Charlotte News: "The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Evans, of Lumberton, will regret to know that their little son, T. C., Jr., is alarmingly sick. Miss Mary Evans, Mr. Evans' sister, who is a trained nurse, left yesterday afternoon for Lumberton, being called by wire. The baby was taken sick Friday with colitis."

PLUNGED INTO CREEK.

Car From Starkey Garage—Steering Gear Was Disabled.

A Cadillac touring car from Starkey Bros.' garage was ditched in Whiskey Creek, about seven and one-half miles from the city last night, about 10:30 o'clock. Vance Norwood, the chauffeur driving the car, lost control of the machine near the bridge over the creek and it plunged down the embankment, stopping with the front wheels resting in the water. It is not thought that the machine is badly damaged. The driver suffered a bruised hip and several scratches on his face. Several passengers in the car were not hurt. Mr. Norwood stated last night that the accident was due to the failure of the machine to respond to the steering gear.

LOCAL DOTS.

—It was erroneously stated in The Star Tuesday that Magistrate John S. Ramos' office was in the Princess building. Mr. Ramos formerly occupied a room in the Princess building, but has not for some time.

—A Morris, colored, who is believed to be mentally unbalanced, was taken into custody Sunday afternoon and will be given an examination before Maj. W. N. Harriss, Clerk of Superior Court, as to his sanity.

—Sheriff S. P. Cowan asks that it be stated that it is a violation of the law for a person to drive a motor vehicle on the roads at night without lights. He declares that many violate this law and plead ignorance as their excuse.

—In accordance with the usual custom Sunday was observed here, as well as elsewhere, as Firemen's Memorial Day. The graves of the deceased members of the fire department were decorated with wreaths by committees from the different companies.

—An interesting game of indoor baseball will be played at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium tonight between the Crabs and the Clams. The teams are now on an even footing in the cellar, and they will strive to use each other as a step ladder to third place tonight. All are invited to attend.

—Friends of Mounted Officer R. J. Thompson, who was shot and seriously wounded by a negro several weeks ago, will be glad to learn that he has sufficiently recovered to be moved from the hospital to his home. If his improvement continues it will probably not be long before he will be back on duty.

—Mr. Percy T. Julian, of Indiana, and Mrs. Katie E. Pinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Bowen, of this city, were married yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in the office of Justice G. W. Bornemann on Princess street, the "Judge" himself performing the ceremony. They will live in Wilmington.

—Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: Lena E. Stemmerman to T. G. Landen, for $100 and other considerations, lot on northwest corner of Eighth and Marsteller streets, 132x155 feet in size; Chas. C. Loughlin to Minnie A. Long, for $1,250 and other considerations, lot on 14th, 99 feet north of Church street, 33x165 feet in size.

—A soldier from Fort Caswell reported to the police yesterday that he had been relieved of $85 in an alleged disorderly house in the eastern part of the city Sunday night. He could give no details other than that the money had been taken from him. The police could promise him small aid in the matter, through they assured him that they would do what they could to recover the money.

—Yesterday's Lumberton Robesonian: "For the benefit of local Episcopalians Bishop Robert Strange, of Wilmington, will conduct services at the Presbyterian church tomorrow evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all denominations. While here Mr. Strange will be a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lawrence. Rev. Thomas P. Noe, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, of Wilmington, will also be in town and will be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Beckwith."

Common Nuisance Charged

J. A. Riggs, a white man of East Wilmington, was arrested yesterday morning on a warrant issued by Justice Harriss charging him with being a common nuisance. He gave $100 justified bond for his appearance before Justice Harriss Wednesday at 10 o'clock. It is alleged that Riggs kept his place of business open on Sunday and allowed drinking, cursing, fighting, etc., much to the annoyance of the neighborhood. Justice Harriss stated that a number of prominent citizens would be summoned to testify against Mr. Riggs.

Dance at Lumina

The first souvenir dance will be given at Lumina on Thursday night, June 13th. The occasion for this souvenir dance is the convention of the Pythians who meet at Wrightsville Beach this week. Of course, the Lumina ball room will be handsomely decorated with the Pythian colors. Pretty souvenirs appropriate for the occasion will be given to all the ladies in the grand march.

REPORT DENIED

Rumor That Standard Oil Co., is to Remove Offices to Wilmington

It has been persistently rumored for several days that in purchasing the southeast corner of Front and Princess street a few days ago, the Southern National Bank did not have the idea in view of eventually erecting thereon a home of its own as was announced at the time the sale was made, and yesterday and last night it was reported that the bank was acting for the Standard Oil Company in purchasing the property and that the latter would erect a handsome building and remove its offices from Charlotte to Wilmington within the next 12 months. It was argued by those who gave further circulation to the rumor that all this was in line with the reputed purchase of the Seaboard Air Line by Standard Oil interests.

Mr. Chas. N. Evans, president of the Southern National Bank, was called over the telephone at his cottage on the beach last night and asked about the reports. He said that he had not heard the rumors, but that they were without foundation; that the bank purchased the property for a home and for no other purpose; that it is the hope to eventually build on the property, and that no one in any way connected with the Standard Oil Company had approached the officers or directors of the bank relative to the purchase of the property.

There may be some truth, however, in the report that the Standard Oil Company will remove its offices to Wilmington from Charlotte, though nothing authentic was learned last night. The offices were located in Wilmington until two or three years ago, when they were removed to Charlotte. The business community would be glad to have the offices of the company for this territory removed to Wilmington.

COTTON MARKET VERY STRONG

The Opening Was Steady at an Advance of 5 to 9 Points and Close Was Also Steady, 17 to 19 Points Higher.

New York, June 10.—While not particularly active the cotton market showed considerable strength today and closed very steady, at a net advance of 17@19 points.

The opening was steady, at an advance of 5 to 9 points, in response to better cables than expected, reports of a more active spot demand in Liverpool and apprehensions of unsettled weather in the Eastern belt, owing to the appearance of a low barometer off the gulf coast. Favorable weather in the belt over Sunday and bearish private crop advices inspired considerable selling at the initial advance, and early fluctuations were somewhat irregular, but the official Eastern belt forecast for rains or unsettled conditions prevented any aggressive offerings and the market later turned firmer on reports that storm signals had been ordered for the South Atlantic and Gulf coasts. The advance carried prices in to new high ground for the movement, and while slight recessions occurred from time to time, the best level of the day was reached in the late trading, when October contracts sold at 11.58, or about four points above the high level of last Friday. Closing prices were at practically the best of the day. Liverpool reported continental and American buying, and said that offerings were limited. Leading spot interests continued buyers of near months here against sales of new crop deliveries and July was relatively firm at the close.

Receipts, 7,687 bales, against 3,253 last week and 2,735 last year. Today's receipts at Galveston, 1,948, against 819 last year; at New Orleans, not received, against 577 last year, and at Houston, 509, against 126 last year.

Spot, quiet, 10 points higher; middling uplands, 11.75; do. gulf, 12.00; no sales

Futures closed very steady.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

Chicago, June 10.—Bullish figures in the government crop report came too late today to affect the price of wheat. The Washington estimate of the total yield this season proved to be 20,000,000 bushels under the most generally accepted prediction that had been current in Chicago. How far traders were from being prepared for such news might be judged by the fact that the market had been weak all day, and had finished at ⅞@1 to 1½c. net decline.

Corn closed ¾@1½ to ⅞@1c. down, and oats off ⅛ to ⅜@½c.

The outcome in provisions was 7½@22½c increase in cost.

STOCK MARKET SESSION DULL

Publication of Steel Unfilled Tonnage for May and Government Crop Report Were Day's Principal Incidents.

New York, June 10.—An unusual variety of incidents and developments, only one of which, the government crop report, constitutes a factor of more than passing importance, combined to provoke a very dull and perfunctory stock market session today. The publication of steel "unfilled tonnage" for May disclosed an increase of only 86,000 tons. To be sure total business on hand at that period, 5,750,983 tons, made a record without parallel since December of 1909, but a greater gain was expected in view of the known activity of operations in the second month of the second quarter. Dealings in steel shares were narrow and nominal before the issuance of the May report, and continued so for the balance of the day.

Trading was without much significance from start to finish. During the afternoon the market lapsed from dullness into utter apathy, until the final half hour, when it became known that the United States Supreme Court, which was holding its final session prior to the Summer adjournment would not render a decision in the long deferred anthracite cases. Concurrent with this was the publication of the crop report, which revealed a further serious damage to Winter wheat, the condition being 74.3 per cent. as against 79.7 on May 1, last, and 80.4 in June of last year. The news from the Supreme Court and the estimates conveyed in the crop report created sudden weakness in the hard coalers and some of the grangers, notably St. Paul, which fell to within a fraction of its low record There were some rallies in the later dealings, but the undertone at the close was irregular. No change is noted in the bond market, which varies little from its long period of dullness and irregularity. Total sales today, par value, aggregated $3,848,000. United States government registered 4s declined ½ per cent on call. Total sales, 293,000 shares stocks.

Ready to Transport Troops.

Newport News, Va., June 10.—United States transports Meade and Kilpatrick, which with the Sumner and McClellan have been tied up here for the past several years, will steam for New York tomorrow morning, where they will be held in readiness to transport troops to Cuba from Northern forts, should occasion arise. The Sumner and McClellan will remain here for a while at least, although they are ready to steam for any point at a few hours' notice.

Cubans Think U. S. Will Intervene.

Havana, June 10.—Interest in Havana centered tonight in the probable outcome of Col. Orestes Ferrara's mission to Washington, which is generally believed to be for the purpose of convincing the American government that there does not exist any necessity for intervention. The campaign in Oriente and all questions bearing on the race animosities have become insignificant as compared with the possibility of intervention. The impending arrival of the United States battleships Nebraska and New Jersey from Key West tends to strengthen the belief that the United States is about to take a leading hand in Cuban affairs.

All danger of racial disturbances in Havana has apparently been dissipated by the arrival of Rear Admiral Osterhaus on the flagship Washington and the battleship Rhode Island this afternoon. None of the American blue jackets were allowed ashore.

Col. Ferrara sent a cablegram to President Gomez in which he stated that the United States government did not contemplate intervention, but would persist in its policy of affording military protection to the foreign properties. Presidential Secretary Ramirez, on behalf of the President, made a statement in part as follows:

According to the news published in the local press the arrival of two American warships today is due to alarming reports sent to Washington which is lamentable. The recent events in Havana lack importance, the police having promptly quelled the disorder.

"It is lamentable because the Cuban people have a warm affection for the United States and are surprised and hurt that warships are sent here for the protection of interests which none have attacked or will attack."

Hardly a visible ripple of popular interest attended the arrival this afternoon of the United States armored cruiser Warshington, the flagship of Admiral Osterhaus, and the battleship Rhode Island, freighted, as both are supposed to be, with weighty influences on Cuba's fate. Behind this apparent apathy, however, was a general but suppressed impression that the coming of the ships portend the long-dreaded American intervention.

Absolute tranquility prevails in Havana. The most interesting intelligence from Oriente today concerns an attack on a company of United States marines at El Cuero early today by insurgents who are believed to have mistaken Americans for Cuban troops. None of the marines was injured.

HIGH, LOW, RICH, POOR.

All Look Alike to Judge Boyd in Greensboro—An Airship.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., June 8.—No session of Federal court was held today, Judge Boyd announcing an adjournment until Monday morning. At that time it is considered very probable that N. Glenn Williams, the wealthy Yadkin county distiller, will appear for sentence in a case in which he was convicted some time ago for using the mails to defraud.

In view of the Williams case, words spoken by Judge Boyd late yesterday afternoon in passing sentence of one year and a day upon Eugene Hayes, a rich distiller and influential citizen of Surry county, were construed as very significant. Attorneys for Hayes had presented certificates from the moderator and clerk of the Baptist church at Mt. Airy, testifying to Hayes' splendid character and great usefulness in the community. Replying to the attorneys Judge Boyd took occasion to say that in his court wealth and position gave no claim to leniency. He declared that he had just sentenced men convicted of the same offense who hardly had clothes to put on their back and that he could not take the attitude of letting this man go merely upon payment of a fine because he was shown to have wealth and high standing in the church.

Hayes' case was a very unusual one. The district attorney showed that he had been after him for years; that he was reputedly the biggest blockader in Surry county. It was shown, too, that he had large farming and mercantile connections and touching the moral side of his life the district attorney put on witnesses who testified that recently Hayes had run off with the wife of another man. It was shown further that Hayes' name was frequently coupled with the notorious Allen band. The defense met this testimony with character witnesses and statements from church officials declaring that Hayes was a man of splendid character and great worth to both church and community.

A Greensboro man promises to revolutionize air traffic. The local inventor is R. H. Milton, former city building inspector and he has just received from the patent office at Washington patent rights on an airship and propeller he has been working on for the past six years. The machine is different from biplanes and other air crafts in that it lifts from the earth by mechanical force. The machine which Mr. Milton has designed has 16 propellers and is large enough to carry from five to seven passengers. As planned, it utilizes the air somewhat in the same manner as a bird.

FREE LANCE WINS DERBY

Large Crowd Attends Renewal of Latonia's Classic

Latonia, Ky., June 8.—On a tract that was lightning fast and before the largest crowd that ever wended its way into fair Latonia's gates, Free Lance, George J. Long's chestnut son of Imp Alvescot-Merry Heart galloped home a winner in the 29th renewal of the Latonia derby, Kentucky's classic, here today. Three lengths back struggled Major T. C. McDowell's The Manager, by Voter, out of Brace Girdle, but game as he proved himself to be, his trial for victory was in vain, for Jockey Peak on Free Lance, riding the race of his life, never let up, but rode the winner out to the last jump, and after the final eighth pole was reached left the result never in doubt.

Five lengths back of The Manager, seeming to realize the utter disgrace of finishing completely out of the money, Worth, the black son of Knight of the Thistle-Miss Hanover, as though by sheer nerve, pulled himself under the wire, third, beaten, but showing the multitude that had wagered on him that he had tried his best.

Latonia, Ky., June 8.—George H. Long's 3-year-old Free Lance, piloted by Jocked Peak, won the 29th renewal of the classic Latonia derby here this afternoon by two lengths from The Manager. Worth, the heavily played favorite, was third, five lengths behind The Manager. Worth ran a game race, but was beaten after the mile post. Free Lance played $13 to $2 to win.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING.

Members of St. John's Church Heard Reports Last Night.

For the purpose of bringing the members of the congregation together to discuss the affairs of the Parish and to hear reports of the year's work from the different departments, the annual parish meeting of St. John's Episcopal church was held last night at the Parish House and was unusually well attended.

Excellent reports, presenting a very comprehensive outline of the work accomplished during the past year were read by representatives from each of the organizations of the parish. They showed a year of progress and of much good work accomplished along all lines of church and parish work. The reports were interspersed with musical numbers furnished by the following members of the choir; Miss Julia Post, Miss Elise Emerson, Mrs. Percy Smith, Mrs. Martha Longfellow, Mr. A. M. Thompson, Mr. McC. B. Wilson, and Mr. Geo. Haskitt.

Upon the close of the business and musical programme very delightful refreshments were served. The meeting was one of the most enjoyable and helpful that has ever been held at St. John's Parish House.

MOST SUCCESSFUL SERVICE

Over 100 Conversions at Fifth Street Church Sunday Night

The most successful service in the revival that has been in progress at Fifth Street Methodist church for the past month was held Sunday night, when over 100 professed conversion. Rev. Raymond Browning, who is assisting Rev. G. T. Adams, the pastor, preached a deeply moving sermon on the conditions of "Salvation," and at its close over 100 people responded to the invitation extended to those desiring to lead better lives.

The series will continue indefinitely as long as the marked interest that has attended the services continues. Services are held twice daily, from 9:30 to 10:30 in the morning and at 8 o'clock at night. An invitation is extended to all to attend.

VOTES AGAINST AMENDMENT

House Refuses to Accept Senate's Metal Tariff Bill

Washington, June 10.—The House voted today, 144 to 101, not to accept the Senate amendment to the metal tariff revision bill, which would repeal the Canadian reciprocity pact and fix a universal duty of $2 a ton on print paper.

The House accepted two Senate amendments, reducing the duty on pig iron and on certain alloys. The bill will again go to conference.

Majority leader, Mr. Underwood estimated the reduced duties on pig iron and alloys would result in a falling off of approximately $300,000 in revenue, which would be taken care of by the revenue raised by the excise tax bill passed by the House and now before the Senate. The clash over the Canadian reciprocity pact has served to complicate further the adjournment plans of the House leaders. They contend that the House will not agree to do away with the pact and the Senate likewise is expected to insist upon its acceptance. Indications are that the two houses are facing a long deadlock.

FIRE AT LEXINGTON, N. C.

Nearly Three Hundred Bales Cotton Destroyed in Warehouse.

Greensboro, N. C., June 10.—Fire which broke out at Lexington, N. C., at 1 o'clock Sunday morning destroyed the cotton warehouse of the Nakomis cotton mills and burned 295 bales of cotton. It is estimated that the damage will be in excess of $10,000. It is believed that the fire originated by tramps taking shelter in one of the buildings Saturday night.

Two battleships building for the French navy will have upper decks especially designed to counteract attacks from aeroplanes.

What is claimed to be the highest garage in Europe has been built in the Alps at a point 6,590 feet above sea level.

NEGRO SCARED WOMAN

Held Up at Point of Revolver Until Officers Arrived

John Williams and Thad Reeves, colored, ertswhile of Roanoke, Va., and Mullins, S. C., respectively, essayed to get fresh with Edna Ford, colored, last night, and as a result are now occupying quarters at the City Hall, awaiting trial in the Recorder's court on charges of assault.

According to the story told the police by the Ford woman she was on her way home on the Castle Haynes road last night from her work in the city, when the two negroes came up behind her and addressed insulting remarks to her. She began to walk faster and they came closer, whereupon she called for help. A negro drayman who was nearby came to her, and the two strange negroes disappeared behind a box car nearby. She went on to her home and accompanied by her sister and Joe Howard, a neighbor, started back. As they drew near the place where she had last seen the two men the Ford woman's sister walked on ahead and the two strange negroes came out from behind the box car and started after her. Howard ran up and covered the negroes with his revolver. He marched them to Eighth and Bladen streets and telephoned to the City Hall. Sergeant Grimsley took the patrol wagon and brought the negroes in. Later the Ford women came to the station and took out warrants against them.

WITNESS DID NOT APPEAR

Cases Against Women Dismissed by Justice John S. Raymos

On account of the failure of F. H. Krahnke, Jr., who made the affidavits upon which the warrants were issued, to appear, Justice John S. Ramos yesterday at noon dismissed cases against 15 women of the underworld, charged with keeping bawdy houses, and ordered that Krahnke be taxed with the costs in the actions.

The hearing was held in the grand jury room at the Court House at noon. W. P. Gafford and Wm. M. Bellamy, Esqs., appeared for the 15 women and at the opening of the hearing they demanded that Krahnke be marked as prosecutor and called. This was done and Krahnke was called in each case as the names of the women were read. As he did not respond the attorneys moved that the cases be dismissed and that the prosecutor be made to pay the mosts. Justice Ramos accordingly made the entry upon his docket, and the women were discharged.

The warrants in the cases were issued by Justice Ramos Saturday night about 8 o'clock and were served by Sheriff S. P. Cowan and Deputies Kelly, Davis and Reynolds. The women furnished bond of $25 each for their appearance yesterday.

From New York to Florida.

Walking on crutches from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., to Florida, Mr. Ralph D. Tompkins, a cripple, of the former place, arrived in the city Sunday night and will spend a few days here before continuing his journey Southward. He expects to reach Florida in the late Summer, and will spend the Winter in that State. He lost his right leg in a railroad accident when he was only four years old, but notwithstanding this handicap he is "some walker." An exhibition of his ability as a walker will be given on Front street this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Tompkins makes his living by singing in motion picture theatres, and he will be heard at the Airdome tonight. He rides on the train from one town to another whenever he has the wherewithal, but when he is lacking in this, he walks.

REV. JESSE BLANTON.

Conducts Series of Meetings at Dillon Mill Church.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dillon, S. C., June 10.—Rev. Jesse Blanton has recently conducted a ten-days' revival service in Mill Baptist Church here. The services were solemn, sweet, impressive. The sermons were purely gospel and the interest splendid. Twenty-nine members were added to the church. Rev. Mr. Blanton is greatly beloved here and the community hopes he will come again very soon.

MRS. STEVENS RECOVERS

After Years of Suffering. Tells How Her Health Was Regained.

Waurika, Okla.—"I had female troubles for seven years, was all run down, and so nervous I could not do anything. The doctors treated me for different things but did me no good. I got so bad that I could not sleep day or night. While in this condition I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and began its use and wrote to you for special advice. In a short time I had regained my health and am now strong and well."—Mrs. SALLIE STEVENS, R.F.D., No. 2, Comanche, Okla.

Another Woman Recovers.

Newton, N.H.—"For five years I suffered from female weakness and dragging down pains. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored my health and the pains are gone."—Mrs. F. A. PEASLEE, R. F. D., Box 88.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has remedied many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and it may be exactly what you need.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

CONFEREES' REPORT ADOPTED.

Contains Anti-Administration Provisions of Army Appropriation Bill.

Washington, June 10.—The Senate today by a vote of 27 to 24, adopted the report of the Senate and House conferees containing a number of anti-administration provisions on the Army Appropriation bill. One of these provisions would legislate out of office General Leonard Wood, present chief of staff of the army. As agreed to, the bill would require army officers acting as chief of staff, after March 4th, next, to have at least 10 years service in the line with rank below brigadier general. The provisions were the subject of a three-hour bitter debate. It was contended the chief of staff restriction was directed at General Wood and that it had been inserted by the conferees without the consent of either house. The provision also would affect unfavorably General Funston and Colonel Goethals.

The House has not yet adopted the report. The discussion was excited at times. Adverse criticism was voiced against the provision creating a commission to consider the discontinuance of many army posts throughout the country. It was charged that in this matter also the conferees had exceeded their authority.

The shrinkage and evaporation of food when cooked by electricity is about one-third as great as when other methods are used.
